The slope of the gutters along a line parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones cement curb and curb walls on each side of said West North avenue, and on each side of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of said West North avenue, shall be uniform from the summits to the catch-basins; and the surface of the finished roadway adjoining the roadway face of said curb stones, cement curb and curb walls shall be parallel with and three (3) inches above the grade of the gutters hereinbefore described, and shall slope thence at a uniform rate to said line parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, cement curb and curb walls; and a transverse section of said finished roadway between the said lines parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, cement curb and curb walls, where the same is not occupied by street railway rights of way, shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of said finished roadway, and a transverse section of said finished roadway where the same is occupied by street railway rights of way shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the established grade of the street at each side of said street railway rights of way at every part of said West North avenue, and at every part of all intersecting streets, between said points, and between said lines parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, cement curb and curb walls.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned free from all foreign substances and drenched with water shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar. Each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface and upon this foundation shall be evenly spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure when compacted a depth of two (2) inches upon which shall be laid the brick pavement.

The brick to be used shall be of the best quality of vitrified paving brick. The dimensions of said brick shall be the same throughout the entire work and shall be four (4) inches in depth, not less than eight (8) inches in length and three and one-fourth (3¼) inches in thickness, with edges rounded to a radius of one-fourth (¼) of an inch.

Said brick shall be of a kind known as repressed, vitrified paving brick, and shall be repressed to the extent that the maximum amount of material is forced into them. They shall be free from lime and other impurities, shall be as nearly uniform in every respect as possible, shall be burned so as to secure the maximum hardness, so annealed as to reach the ultimate degree of toughness and vitrified so as to make a homogeneous mass.

The brick shall be free from laminations and fire cracks, or checks of more than superficial character or extent.

Twenty (20) or more of said brick shall be furnished to the Board of Local Improvements for submission to the "abrasion" test. Said test shall be made in the machine known as the "Rattler," which shall measure twenty (20) inches in length and twenty-eight (28) inches in diameter, inside measurements. The charge shall be composed of said brick and iron abrasive material. The brick charge shall consist of that number of whole brick whose combined volume most nearly amounts to eight (8) per cent of the volume of the rattling chamber, and the abrasive charge shall consist of three hundred (300) pounds of shot made of ordinary machinery cast-iron. Said shot shall consist of cubical pieces having sides of one and one-half (1½) inches, aggregating two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds in weight, and pieces two and one-half (2½) inches square and four and one-half (4½) inches in length, aggregating seventy-five (75) pounds in weight. The rattler after being thus charged shall be revolved eighteen hundred (1,800) times, and the speed of rotation shall not fall below twenty-eight (28), nor exceed thirty (30) per minute. The loss of weight by abrasion during such est shall not exceed eighteen (18) per ent of the original weight of the brick ested. All brick used must be equal in very respect to the brick submitted for est.

The brick shall be laid as follows, to wit: Broken brick can only be used to reak joints in starting courses and in aking closures, but in no case shall ess than one-fourth (¼) of a brick be sed. The brick shall be set lengthwise n edge, with the ends close together, cross said roadbeds, parallel to vertical lanes which shall be at right angles to he curb lines of said roadways, except he space sixteen (16) inches in width djoining the roadway face of said curb-tones, cement curb and curb walls, here said brick shall be set lengthwise n edge, with the ends close together, arallel with said curbstones, cement urb and curb walls. On roadway in-ersections the brick shall be set length-ise on edge, with the ends close to-ether, and parallel to vertical planes hich shall be at an angle of forty-five 45) degrees with the center line of the reets. The spaces between the sides of ie brick shall be not less than one-eighth ⅛) of an inch nor more than one-urth (¼) of an inch in width. The ints shall be broken by a lap of not ss than three (3) inches. The brick hen set shall be rolled with a roller of ve (5) tons weight until the brick is ell settled and made firm. When the ick is thoroughy bedded, the surface the pavement must be true to the rm of roadway hereinbefore described.

The joints or spaces between the brick all be filled with asphaltic filler at a mperature of between three hundred d fifty (350) and four hundred and ty (450) degrees Fahrenheit. Said ler shall have a specific gravity at venty-seven (77) degrees Fahrenheit not more than unity (1.0) and shall of such consistency as to have a netration at thirty-two (32) degrees hrenheit of not less than two (2) llimeters when tested with a number two (2) needle weighted with two hundred (200) grams for one (1) minute. At one hundred and fifteen (115) degrees Fahrenheit, said filler shall have a penetration of not more than eight (8) millimeters when tested with a number two (2) needle weighted with fifty (50) grams for five (5) seconds, and it shall melt at two hundred and fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit. The surface of the pavement shall then receive a one-half (½) inch dressing of clean, coarse sand.

Ten new catch-basins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in West North avenue and located in the roadway of said West North avenue at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines. Each of said catch-basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch-basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch-basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch-basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch-basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch-basin.

Each of said catch-basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch-basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadway of said West North avenue as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
June 14, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith for your consideration an ordinance amending ordinance passed by your Honorable Body on June 22, 1908, relating to the numbering of lots or houses in the City of Chicago and providing for a system of prefixes on certain streets in conformity with popular usage. I respectfully request the adoption of the amendment for the following reasons:

(1). Considerable confusion must necessarily ensue from enforcing the aforesaid ordinance of June 22, 1908, on account of its broad and sweeping character, and the suggested changes reduce to a minimum the confusion naturally attendant thereon.

(2). I am informed that it is the experience of the post office in connection with mail addressed to east and west streets east of State street, that mail is addressed almost invariably wit the prefix "East" notwithstanding the legal name of the street under the old system bears no prefix.

(3). A considerable saving of expense in the removal and substitution of new street signs on lampposts will be avoided by the passage of the proposed amendment.

(4). During former years the publishers of the various city directories had used the prefix "East" without legal justification with reference to the numbered streets on the south side in conformity with popular usage.

(5). The four general prefixes will be extremely useful in indicating to those unfamiliar with the location of our streets the direction in which the streets run.

Inasmuch as the leading directory publishers of the city have in the course of preparation a new directory and there is need for immediate action on the part of the Council on the foregoing subject, I respectfully request your Honorable Body to take such action on the proposed amendment as you may deem fit and proper at your earliest convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Hey moved to refer the said communication and the ordinance submitted herewith, to the Committee on Street Nomenclature.

The motion prevailed.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, ILL., June 14, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith to your Honorable Body a diagram for the construction of an island in Lake Michigan, to be used for park purposes. The plan was submitted to me by Thomas H. Keefe.

I also transmit to your Honorable Body a letter from Robert Rae, commodore of the Yacht Club of Chicago, which states that the Yacht Club was authorized by the state legislature in 1891 to make a certain breakwater along the shore in that vicinity and contains a statement that the Yacht Club will cooperate with the city in utilizing the reefs off 55th street, if such co-operation is desired.

I respectfully recommend that these communications be referred to the committee on harbors, wharves and bridges.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Foell moved to refer the diagram and communication and attached papers transmitted by His Honor, the Mayor, to the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges.

The Committee on Streets and Alleys, West Division, submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Egan, deferred and ordered published:

CHICAGO, June 14, 1909.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Streets and Alleys, West Division, to whom was referred (June 8, 1909, page 555) an ordinance requiring the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway to proceed to repair the approach in Fulton street to the subway beneath its tracks, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend that the same do pass:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the City Council deem the work, hereinafter specified, necessary.

SECTION 2. That the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, within ten (10) days after the passage and approval of this ordinance, proceed to repair the approach in Fulton street to the subway beneath its tracks, in accordance with the following specifications:

SPECIFICATIONS.

For improving Fulton street, from the foot of the approach of the subway under the Pennsylvania railroad to the top of the east approach with granite blocks No. 2, requiring approximately the following quantities upon which bids must be submitted:

Granite block pavement, complete, 655 square yards, more or less.

Old manholes to be adjusted, 2 more or less.

Unless otherwise specified, the price bid per square yard for pavement must include all costs of cutting, filling and grading that may be necessary to bring the roadway to the proper sub-grade.

Remarks.

Present roadway: Old cedar blocks, 38 feet wide; roadway to be No. 2 granite block, 38 feet wide.

Adjustment of Sewer Manholes and Catch-Basins.

The contractor shall, for the prices bid, lower, raise and adjust to the proper grade and line all covers to the sewer manholes and catch-basins.

Old Manholes.

The covers of the manholes shall be taken off and the upper courses of the brickwork removed if they be defective or if it be necessary to set the covers at a lower grade; if it be necessary to raise the covers more than six inches the upper header courses shall be removed until the internal diameter of the brickwork shall be two feet and six inches and the manholes shall be built up with new brickwork to the proper grade and an iron cover set thereon, using the old cover if it be in a suitable condition.

The price bid per manhole shall include the cost of all the above work and material, including not to exceed two feet of new brickwork, excepting the new cover if furnished.

Covers.

The contractor shall set all covers to the correct grade in a bed of mortar on top of the brickwork above specified.

Masonry.

The bricks must be clean and thoroughly wet before being laid; the most perfectly formed bricks and those with the smoothest surfaces are to be used in the inside courses, the smoothest edge of the brick being laid to the face.

No joint shall exceed one-half of an inch in thickness, and all joints on face shall be trowel-struck.

If it be necessary to build more than two feet of brickwork in adjusting the cover of any manhole or catch-basin such excess shall be paid for at the rate of two dollars per lineal foot.

Mortar.

The mortar shall be made by carefully measuring and thoroughly incorporating one part of natural cement with two parts of clean, sharp sand in dry state, and mixed with clean water to the proper consistency, and shall be used while fresh, and the use of mortar which has been set and then retempered will not be allowed. The mortar used in laying pipe sewers shall be of pure cement, mixed and used as above specified, all to be furnished by the contractor without extra charge.

Bricks.

The bricks shall be of the best quality for the purpose for which they are intended, uniform in quality, sound and hard-burned, free from lime and cracks, and to have a clear, ringing sound when struck, whole and with edges full and square, and of standard dimensions, viz.: 8x4x2¼ inches; they shall be of compact texture, and after being thoroughly dried and immersed in water for twenty-four hours shall not absorb more than fifteen (15) per cent in weight of water.

Back Filling.

The earth must be carefully replaced around all manholes and catch-basins and over all tile pipe laid under this contract in such a manner that no further settlement will take place, and it must be thoroughly rammed with suitable rammers or puddled with water or both.

Preparation of Sub-Grade.

When filling is required it shall be of earth or cinders, free from animal or vegetable matter, and shall be deposited in layers and thoroughly compacted.

In all cases where back-filling of curb is required it shall have a berme of at least four (4) feet at the top thereof, with a slope in one and one-half (1½) horizontal to one (1) vertical.

Where the earth adjacent to the back of the curb is above grade, it shall be removed so as to form a slope of one and one-half (1½) horizontal to one (1) vertical, rising from the back of the curb to the surface of the ground.

Where cutting is required the earth must be excavated to such a depth as may be necessary to bring the roadway to the proper sub-grade after having been thoroughly compacted.

All spongy material or other inferior or vegetable matter that may be in the way of making this improvement shall be removed.

All approaches connecting said street with other streets or alleys intersecting, shall also be cut or filled so that the same shall have a slope of not more than one (1) vertical to ten (10) horizontal and shall be secured from settlement adjoining the pavement.

The roadway shall be brought to the proper sub-grade by cutting or filling and thoroughly compacted and secured from further settlement by flooding, ramming or rolling, or all.

Preparation of Macadam Foundation.

On the sub-grade as above prepared shall be spread a layer of crushed limestone broken to a size which will pass through a ring of two and one-half (2½) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one (1") inch internal diameter and in such quantities that after having the interstices filled with limestone screenings, flooded and thoroughly rolled with a ten ton steam roller, the top of the course shall be seven (7") inches below and parallel with the surface of the granite blocks. This layer shall average approximately eight (8") inches in depth.

All necessary precaution must be used in preparing the sub-grade so as to support the pavement permanently.

Sand Cushion.

Upon the concrete foundation shall be spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure, when compacted, a uniform thickness of two (2") inches.

Granite Blocks.

Upon the sand cushion shall be se syenite or granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification, and free from an excess of mica or feldspar.

The blocks shall measure from three (3″) to five (5″) inches in width, eight (8″) to twelve (12″) inches in length, and five (5″) inches in depth, and be so dressed as to have substantially rectangular, plane surfaces, so that when the blocks are in place the space between the blocks shall in no case be less than one-eighth (⅛″) inch nor more than five-eighths (⅝″) inch. Soft or weather worn stones obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic, shall not be used.

The blocks shall be laid in contact with each other and in uniform courses across the roadway between the gutters, except at the intersections of the streets, where they shall be laid at an angle of forty-five (45°) degrees with the center line thereof. Each course shall consist of blocks of the same width, and be so laid that all longitudinal joints shall be broken by a lap of at least three (3″) inches.

Dry gravel free from loam and dirt shall be swept into the interstices, and the blocks rammed with a seventy-five (75) pound rammer to a true surface and a firm bed. No cracked or chipped blocks shall remain in the pavement.

The space between the granite block pavement and the curb or curb wall shall be filled with a mortar composed of one part of Portland cement and three parts of torpedo sand or limestone screenings.

Pitching and Top Dressing.

After ramming, the spaces between the blocks are to be completely filled with paving pitch which is the direct result of the distillation of "straight run" coal tar. The pitch must be used at a temperature of not less than 280 degrees Fahrenheit and be spread in sections.

Immediately after the spreading of the paving pitch, and while it is still hot, the blocks shall be covered to a depth of not less than one-half (½″) inch with dry roofing gravel. This gravel must be entirely free from sand or loam, and not to exceed one-half (½″) inch in size. All gravel must be clean, washed, dried, and heated enough to prevent the chilling of the pitch.

The tarring and top dressing must be completed each day to within five (5′) feet of the face of the blocking.

Headers.

At the end of each intersecting street and alley wing there shall be placed a "header" extending from curb to curb, and so dressed as to conform to the crown of the pavement. The "header" shall be constructed of three by twelve (3″x12″) inch oak plank, properly supported by six (6″) inch split cedar posts, three (3′) feet in length, firmly set in the ground and spaced not more than five (5′) feet apart. When concrete is used as a foundation the "headers" must be set prior to the laying of the concrete.

Cross-Walks.

There shall be formed in the pavement four (4) crosswalks at each street intersection, three (3) at each half intersection and one (1) across each and every alley wing and one (1) at the middle of each long block. The cross-walks shall consist of three (3) rows of granite flagstones spaced eighteen (18″) inches apart. The flagstones shall be of the best quality of granite, free from sand pockets, drill holes, seams or other defects, eighteen (18″) inches wide, five (5″) inches in thickness, and not less than three (3′) feet in length, except where shorter stones may be necessary to make closures, and shall be "bush-hammered" on top, and the sides and ends pitched and dressed to a line so as to make close joints. They shall be firmly bedded in sand and well rammed to a uniform surface.

SECTION 3. In the event that said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St.

Louis Railway Company shall fail to begin the work of making said repairs in the manner provided by Section 2 of this ordinance within ten (10) days after it is notified so to do by the Commissioner of Public Works, said Commissioner of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed to immediately proceed to make the repairs provided by Section 2 of this ordinance and the expense thereof shall be charged to and paid by said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, and the amount so expended, unless paid by said company to the City of Chicago shall be recovered from said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company by the City of Chicago in any proper action instituted therefor.

SECTION 4. In the event that the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company refuse to make said repairs in Section 2 provided for, and in consequence thereof the Commissioner of Public Works shall make said repairs as in Section 3 provided for, then in such event the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company shall pay to the City of Chicago for making said repairs ten per cent. (10%) of the amount so expended, which shall, unless paid by said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company be recovered by said City of Chicago from said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company in the manner and together with the amount so expended for said repairs ir any action instituted therefor.

The above heights as fixed shall be measured from the plane of low water in Lake Michigan of A. D. 1847, as established by the Trustees of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and adopted by the late Board of Drainage Commissioners and by the late Board of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and now represented by the ordinance of July 11th, A. D. 1898, relating to the corrected elevation of the Old Lind Block bench mark, which determines the base or datum for City levels.

The said roadways of the several streets specified above, between the points hereinbefore described, and also the roadways of all streets and alleys intersecting the several streets specified above and extending from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of each of said above specified streets between the points hereinbefore described, shall be so graded that after being thoroughly puddled, and rolled with a roller of ten (10) tons weight until the roadbeds are thoroughly compacted, and after the pavement hereinafter described shall have been placed thereon, the surface of the pavement at the center of the finished roadway of each of said above specified streets and the center of the finished roadways of all streets intersecting the said above specified streets and extending from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of each of said above specified streets, shall coincide with the established grade of said above specified streets hereinbefore described; and the surface of the said finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catchbasins and adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be four (4) inches below said established grade, and the surface of the finished roadways at the catchbasin inlets in the gutters adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be nine (9) inches below said established grade.

The slope of the gutters adjoining the roadway face of said curb shall be uniform from the summits to the catchbasins, and a transverse section of said finished roadways and said gutter flags shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of each of said finished roadways at every part of the several roadways of said above specified streets, and at every part of the roadways of all streets intersecting the several streets specified above, between the points hereinbefore described.

The surface of the finished pavement in all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified shall be four (4) inches below the top of the curb on each side of said alley intersections, at the street lines produced of each of said above specified streets, and shall slope thence at a uniform grade to its intersection with the gutters hereinbefore described.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points and between said gutter flags shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry, and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar; each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds, and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface. The surface of said layer of concrete shall be parallel with and three and one-half (3½) inches below the top of the finished pavement.

Upon the concrete foundation as above specified shall be laid a binder course composed of asphaltic cement and gravel or clean, broken limestone, crusher run and of varying sizes which will pass through a ring of one (1) inch internal diameter. The gravel or stone shall be heated and thoroughly mixed with the asphaltic cement in the proportions of six (6) parts by weight of asphaltic cement and ninety-four (94) parts by weight of gravel or stone. This binder shall be spread on the base above described and, while in a hot and plastic condition, shall be rolled until it has a uniform thickness of one and one-half (1½) inches. The upper surface shall be exactly parallel with and two (2) inches below the finished surface of the pavement.

Upon this binder course shall be laid a wearing surface or pavement proper which shall be composed of asphaltic cement seventeen (17) parts, sand seventy three (73) parts and Portland cement ten (10) parts. The sand and asphaltic cement shall be heated separately to a temperature of three hundred (300) degrees Fahrenheit. The Portland cement shall be mixed with the sand and these ingredients then mixed with the asphaltic cement at the above temperature in an apparatus which shall effect a perfect mixture.

All asphaltum used in the making of the asphaltic cement for both the binder and the wearing surface shall be asphaltum obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad, or asphaltum which shall be equal in quality for paving purposes to that obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad.

The material for pavement, when mixed as above, shall be spread at a temperature of two hundred and fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit. It shall be carefully spread by means of hot iron rakes in such manner as to give uniform and regular grade to such a depth that, after having received its ultimate compression, it will have a thickness of two (2) inches.

The entire surface of the roadways thus improved shall then be compressed by hand rollers, after which natural hydraulic cement in the proportion of one (1) barrel to each one thousand (1000) square yards of surface shall be swept over it, and the whole then thoroughly compressed by rolling with a steam roller of ten (10) tons weight, the rolling being continued for five (5) hours for each one thousand (1000) square yards of surface.

Two (2) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Edgewater place and located in the roadway of said Edgewater place at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said Edgewater place; two (2) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Thome avenue and located in the roadway of said Thome avenue at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said Thome avenue; four (4) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in North Paulina street and located in the roadway of said North Paulina street at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said North Paulina street.

Each of said catch basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch-basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch-basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch-basin.

Each of said catch-basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch-basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadways of said system of streets as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

This refund is ordered upon an opinion of the Corporation Counsel, dated June 11, 1909, published herewith and attached hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) B. W. SNOW,

The following opinion submitted by the Corporation Counsel was submitted with the foregoing report:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
June 11, 1909.

In re refund on vehicle licenses of Borden Condensed Milk Company.

Hon. Bernard W. Snow, Chairman, Finance Committee:

DEAR SIR—Borden's Condensed Milk Company very early in May took out wheel tax licenses and paid fees on more than four hundred fifty milk wagons. Among these were twenty-eight wagons which are stabled and kept in Oak Park, but which deliver milk exclusively in Chicago.

It now transpires that the Oak Park authorities insist that the Borden Company shall pay the Oak Park wheel tax upon these twenty-eight wagons on the ground that such wagons are domiciled in Oak Park. The Borden Company has asked the city to refund to it the wheel tax for the unexpired period of the present year so that it may not be compelled to pay a wheel tax in both municipalities.

Inasmuch as the Borden Company has taken out its licenses and paid very promptly, and as we do not care to get into a controversy with the Oak Park authorities in this matter, I recommend the refund of license fees for the unexpired period of the present year on single vehicle licenses numbers 3214 to 3240, inclusive, and on double vehicle license 1305, amounting to $133.00.

I am sending you herewith a letter of the Village Clerk of Oak Park, and also a letter from the Borden Company making application for this refund.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE,
Corporation Counsel.

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this..... day of ....., A. D. 1909, between Webster Mfg. Co., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Illinois, party of the first part, and the City of Chicago, party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

1. That the said party of the first part for and in consideration of the payments to be to it made by the City of Chicago, as hereinafter set forth, hereby covenants and agrees to furnish all labor and materials and do all the work of every sort and kind required in the construction and installation of the coal and ashes handling machinery in the City Hall building, to be erected on the west half of Block thirty-nine (39), in the original town of Chicago, in conformity to and in accordance with the plans, drawings and specifications prepared by Holabird & Roche, Architects, and identified by the signatures of said party of the first part of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago and of said Architects, copies of which are hereto attached and made parts hereof, the originals being on file in the office of said Commissioner of Public Works.

2. It is expressly understood by the parties hereto that the contractor for the general work of constructing said building commenced said general work on or about the 15th day of April, A. D. 1909, and has agreed to prosecute said general work diligently and continuously and to fully complete the same within eighteen (18) calendar months from the date of the delivery to it of possession of the premises as aforesaid; also that the contractor for the work of constructing and installing the boilers, breeching and setting has agreed to commence the installation thereof as soon as the construction of said building shall be sufficiently advanced in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works to enable said contractor to prosecute said work of installation continuously and without interruption and within ten (10) days after receiving notice in writing to that effect from the Commissioner of Public Works, and to fully complete the installation of two of said boilers within sixty (60) days after commencing the work of installing the same, and to complete the installation of the remaining boilers within ninety (90) days after commencing said work; also that the contractor for the work of installing the furnaces and grates has agreed to complete each furnace within two (2) weeks after the boiler to which it is to be connected is set in position ready for brick work.

The party of the first part hereby agrees to commence the work included in this contract as soon as the construction of said building shall be sufficiently advanced in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works, to enable said party of the first part to prosecute the work included in this contract continuously and without interruption, and within seven (7) days after receiving notice in writing to that effect from the Commissioner of Public Works, which notice shall be receipted for in writing by the party of the first part. Said party of the first part agrees to prosecute the work diligently and continuously and to fully complete the same as contemplated by this contract at or before the time hereinbefore set for the final completion of all the furnaces and grates, and to remove scaffolding, material, implements, debris or rubbish connected with or caused by said work immediately on completion and leave said work complete and perfect, free from expense to the party of the second part; and shall at all times give to the Commissioner of Public Works and to Holabird & Roche, Architects, free access to said work.

3. It is expressly understood by the parties hereto that the general work of constructing said building as well as certain other portions of the work not included in this contract for said general work, will be carried on in the building during the performance of this contract; and in order that said general work and said other certain portions of the work may be completed within the times set for the completion thereof, the party of the first part undertakes and agrees not to hinder or interfere with the contractors for said general and other work, but to give said contractors such facilities and opportunities for the performance of their contracts that all the contractors employed by the party of the second part in and about said building may co-operate in and about the performance of their respective contracts.

4. It is hereby further agreed that the party of the second part shall furnish to the party of the first part one set of copies of all plans, drawings, specifications and addenda thereto signed by said Commissioner of Public Works and by said Architects, which shall be kept upon the premises above described and to which the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects shall have free access at all times. Should any dispute arise between the parties hereto respecting the true construction or interpretation to be given said plans, drawings, specifications or addenda, or the meaning thereof, the same shall be decided by the Architects with the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works and such decision shall be final. Said plans, drawings and specifications are intended to be co-operative so that any work shown by the plans or drawings and not mentioned in the specifications, or vice versa, is to be executed if mentioned in the specifications and shown by the plans or drawings with the true intent and meaning of said plans, drawings and specifications.

5. It is further agreed that the said party of the second part may, through its Commissioner of Public Works at any time during the progress of said work, make any addition to or deduction or alteration, from said plans, drawings, specifications and addenda without invalidating any part of this agreement, but the fair value of the same shall be added to or deducted from the sums herein agreed to be paid by the said party of the second part, as the case may be; provided, that no work of any description upon the premises shall be considered as extra work or a charge in excess of the amount herein agreed to be paid unless a proper estimate in writing of the same before its commencement shall have been submitted and signed by the said Architects, approved by the said Commissioner of Public Works and authorized by the City Council of the City of Chicago; and, provided, further, that should any dispute arise respecting the fair value of the work added or omitted by the party of the first part, the same shall be determined by the arbitration of three persons, one to be chosen by the party of the first part, one by the party of the second part, through its Commissioner of Public Works, and the two so chosen to select a third, and the decision by a majority of the three so chosen shall be binding upon the parties hereto, and the expense of said arbitration shall be borne equally between the parties hereto. Said party of the first part, however, expressly covenants and agrees that in no case shall any such dispute or arbitration interfere with the regular progress of the work, but that it will prosecute the entire work, including that under dispute or arbitration, without interruption or delay in accordance with the terms of this contract and the specifications, pending the settlement of any such dispute by arbitration or otherwise.

6. In cases of additions to or alterations in the work made as above provided which will require additional time for completion of the work included in this contract, or in case the party of the first part shall be obstructed or delayed in the prosecution or completion of the work by other contractors of the party of the second part, or by the act, neglect, delay or default of the party of the second part, or by any damage which may happen by fire, lightning, earthquake, cyclone or the abandonment of the work by its employees through no fault of said party of the first part, then the time herein fixed for the completion of the work may be extended for a period equivalent to the time lost by reason of any of the causes aforesaid; but no such extension shall be made unless a claim therefor is presented in writing to the Commissioner of Public Works within three days after the commencement of any such delay. The duration of such extension, if any, shall be such fair allowance as shall be determined and certified in writing by the Architects, and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. The said party of the first part hereby assumes all responsibility for any loss or damage that may happen to said work, or any part thereof, or the materials therefor, or for any injury to the workmen or the public or to individual or for damage to adjoining property or for any damage arising from its delaying in any manner the completion of the work of other contractors in said building or from any other cause whatsoever until said work is finished, delivered and accepted by said party of the second part. And it is further expressly understood and agreed that if the time of performance of the contract herein be for any reason, either expressly or by implication, extended, such extensions shall not affect the validity of this contract nor the liabilities of the sureties upon the bond given for the faithful performance of the same.

7. It is further understood and agreed that said party of the first part shall not sublet any portion of said work except with the consent and approval in writing of the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, and in no case shall such consent relieve the party of the first part from its obligations herein assumed, or change the terms of this agreement. Should said party of the first part desire to sublet any portion of the work, a request shall be made in writing (in triplicate copies), giving the name and address of the proposed sub-contractor and defining the portion of the work he desires to sublet, and this shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects for approval. If the proposed sub-contractor is satisfactory, one copy of the written request of said party of the first part shall be approved in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, and returned to said party of the first part.

8. It is further understood and agreed that on or about the first and fifteenth days of each month and before the party of the second part or its agents or Architects shall pay or cause to be paid to the party of the first part or its order any money or other consideration due or to become due herein, said party of the first part shall furnish to the Commissioner of Public Works, if required by him, a written statement, verified by affidavit, giving the names and addresses of all persons, firms and corporations who have, up to the date thereof, furnished labor or material in or about the performance of this contract, and the amounts due or to become due to said parties.

9. It is further understood and agreed that whenever the Commissioner of Public Works shall notify the party of the first part by notice personally served or by leaving a copy thereof at the last known address of said party of the first part that no further estimates or vouchers will be issued or payments made on the contract until the sub-contractors, workmen or employees of said party of the first part have been paid, and said party of the first part shall neglect or refuse for the space of ten days after such notice shall have been served to pay such sub-contractors, workmen or employees, said party of the second part shall be authorized to apply any money due or that may become due under this contract to the payment of such sub-contractors, workmen or employees without other or further notice to said party of the first part, or, at its option may declare this entire agreement null and void and may take possession of said work and complete the same; and in such case said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay all loss or damage caused thereby. And it is expressly understood and agreed that the failure of the party of the second part to retain and apply any of such moneys or of the Commissioner of Public Works to order or direct that no vouchers or estimate shall issue or further payments be made, shall not, nor shall the paying over of any reserved percentage, without such sub-contractor, workman or employee being first paid, in any way affect the liability of the party of the first part or of its sureties to said party of the second part or to any such sub-contractor, workman or employee upon the bond given for the faithful performance of this contract.

10. Said party of the first part further covenants and agrees to furnish such materials, workmanship and labor of all kinds as shall be suitable and necessary for carrying on and completing said work, and to protect said materials and workmanship from damage by the elements, and otherwise until the completion of the same, and to remove all improper material and work when so directed by said Architects with the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, and to substitute therefor such materials and work as, in the opinion of said Architects and said Commissioner of Public Works are required by the plans, drawings and specifications. No improper materials shall be used, but all materials of every kind shall fully answer the specifications, or, if not particularly specified or indicated on the plans or drawings shall be suitable for the place where used. Said party of the first part further agrees to furnish all materials and perform all of said work under the immediate direction and superintendence of the Architects, and to their entire satisfaction, approval and acceptance. All material used and all labor performed shall be subject to the inspection and the approval or rejection of said Architects, and the said party of the second part hereby reserves to said Architects, with the approval of its Commissioner of Public Works, the right finally to decide all questions arising as to the proper performance of said work and as to whether the rate of progress therein is such as to correspond with the conditions of this contract.

11. It is further expressly understood and agreed that if the said party of the first part shall at any time refuse, neglect or be unable to follow the reasonable instructions of the Commissioner of Public Works and of said Architects in the completion of said work in any manner or fail to prosecute said work at such a rate as shall, in the judgment of said Architects and of the Commissioner of Public Works, insure its completion in the time and manner herein stipulated, or delay said work or show gross carelessness or incompetency or fail to comply with said plans, drawings, specifications and addenda, or to protect said materials or workmanship from damage or refuse or neglect to furnish sworn statements as herein agreed, said party of the second part by giving three days' notice in writing signed by said Architects and approved by said Commissioner of Public Works to said party of the first part of its intention so to do, and the party of the first part being still in default as above at the end of said three days, may enter upon and employ other persons to finish said work, protect or re-execute the same; and the expense thereof, together with all loss or damage occasioned thereby shall be adjusted by the Commissioner of Public Works and shall be charged to said party of the first part and shall be deducted from the sum due him under this agreement.

12. The said City of Chicago hereby covenants and agrees in consideration of the covenants and agreements in this contract specified to be kept and performed by the said party of the first part that if its City Council shall hereafter levy taxes and appropriate funds therefrom lawfully for this purpose, it will pay to said party of the first part for the full completion of the work included in this contract to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, the sum of Eleven Thousand ($11,000.00) Dollars, as hereinafter set forth.

13. It is further agreed by said City that if its City Council shall levy taxes and appropriate funds as aforesaid and if the rate of progress upon said work shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works and to said Architects, semi-monthly certificates will be issued by the Architects for eighty-five (85) per cent. of the work done and materials properly set in place, in the judgment of said Architects. On or about the fifth and twentieth days of each month, upon the approval of the above certificates by the Commissioner of Public Works, estimates for the amount of the certificates will be issued by said Commissioner of Public Works subject to additions or deductions as herein provided for, which shall entitle the holder to receive the amount that may be due thereon when the money applicable to the payment of such work shall be available and the conditions annexed to such estimates, if any, shall have been satisfied. It is expressly understood and agreed, however, that the amounts to be paid from time to time shall in no case exceed eighty-five per cent of the value of the work done and the material set in place; the remaining fifteen per cent. of said value is to be retained by said party of the second part as part security for the faithful performance of this contract, and shall not be paid until the expiration of thirty days after the completion of said work, acceptance of the same by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Architects, payments of all claims for labor and materials and the return of all plans, specifications and drawings to the Architects. The giving of the aforesaid certificates and estimates, however, shall in no way lessen the total and final responsibility of the party of the first part.

14. It is further expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the work herein provided for shall be fully completed and ready for delivery within the time fixed herein. Inasmuch as a failure to have said work fully completed and ready for delivery within the time fixed therefor will work an injury to the City, and as the damages arising from delay in the completion of the work cannot be calculated with any degree of certainty, it is hereby agreed that if such work is not completed within the time specified, then there shall be deducted from the contract price and retained by the City as its ascertained and liquidated damages the sum of Four Hundred ($400.00) Dollars for each and every day passing after the date so fixed for the completion of said work until said work is fully completed and ready for service.

15. This agreement shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

In Witness Whereof, Said party of the first part has caused this agreement to be signed by its President, and its corporate seal to be affixed hereto and attested by its Secretary, and the City of Chicago has caused this agreement to be signed by its Commissioner of Public Works, countersigned by its Comptroller and approved by its Mayor, the day and year first above written.

WHEREAS, More than 6,000 people residing in Hegewisch and the immediate vicinity are urgently demanding street car transportation to and from South Chicago and elsewhere; and

WHEREAS, The aforesaid railway company has not commenced its construction work for this extension, but has by one pretext and another procrastinated in its binding obligation, claiming, among other things, that the necessary frontage consents have not been secured for the route, and casting the burden of securing such frontage consents upon those persons interested in securing proper transportation for the neighborhood affected; and

"To the Mayor and City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—It has come to our attention through the public press and otherwise that the Calumet & South Chicago Railway Company, who were granted a franchise from the City of Chicago upon the express condition that it would extend its line to the city limits at Hegewisch and have it in operation by January 1st, 1910, is about to request from the City Council of the City of Chicago an extension of said time limit for two years, or until January 1st, 1912.

Inasmuch as this franchise was granted upon the agreement that relief would be extended to the residents of the south end of the Eighth Ward in the time stated;

And inasmuch as nothing has arisen in the meantime to render the carrying out of this condition impossible or even more difficult than at the time this stipulation was entered into;

And inasmuch as there are 6,000 people residing in Hegewisch and vicinity who are in dire need of street car transportation to and from South Chicago and elsewhere,

We respectfully urge upon your Honorable Body that no additional time whatever be granted to said railway company for the completion of this extension, but that they be compelled to proceed with construction as agreed when this franchise was obtained."

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points and between said gutter flags shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar. Each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface, and upon this foundation shall be evenly spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure when compacted a depth of two (2) inches, upon which shall be laid the brick pavement.

The brick to be used shall be of the best quality of vitrified paving brick. The dimensions of said brick shall be the same throughout the entire work, and shall be four (4) inches in depth, not less than eight (8) inches in length and three and one-fourth (3¼) inches in thickness, with edges rounded to a radius of one-fourth (¼) of an inch.

Said brick shall be of a kind known as repressed, vitrified paving brick, and shall be repressed to the extent that the maximum amount of material is forced into them. They shall be free from lime and other impurities, shall be as nearly uniform in every respect as possible, shall be burned so as to secure the maximum hardness, so annealed as to reach the ultimate degree of toughness and vitrified so as to make a homogeneous mass.

The brick shall be free from laminations and fire cracks, or checks of more than superficial character or extent.

Twenty (20) or more of said brick shall be furnished to the Board of Local Improvements for submission to the "abrasion" test. Said test shall be made in the machine known as the "Rattler," which shall measure twenty (20) inches in length and twenty-eight (28) inches in diameter, inside measurements. The charge shall be composed of said brick and iron abrasive material. The brick charge shall consist of that number of whole brick whose combined volume most nearly amounts to eight (8) per cent of the volume of the rattling chamber, and the abrasive charge shall consist of three hundred (300) pounds of shot made of ordinary machinery cast-iron. Said shot shall consist of cubical pieces having sides of one and one-half (1½) inches, aggregating two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds in weight, and pieces two and one-half (2½) inches square and four and one-half (4½) inches in length, aggregating seventy-five (75) pounds in weight. The rattler after being thus charged shall be revolved eighteen hundred (1,800) times, and the speed of rotation shall not fall below twenty-eight (28), nor exceed thirty (30) per minute. The loss of weight by abrasion during such test shall not exceed eighteen (18) per cent of the original weight of the brick tested. All brick used must be equal in every respect to the brick submitted for test.

The brick shall be laid as follows, to wit: Broken brick can only be used to break joints in starting courses and in making closures, but in no case shall less than one-fourth (¼) of a brick be used. The brick shall be set lengthwise on edge, with the ends close together, across said roadbeds, parallel to vertical planes which shall be at right angles to the curb lines of said roadways. On roadway intersections the brick shall be set lengthwise on edge, with the ends close together, and parallel to vertical planes which shall be at an angle of forty-five (45) degrees with the center line of the streets. The spaces between the sides of the brick shall be not less than one-eighth (⅛) of an inch nor more than one-fourth (¼) of an inch in width. The joints shall be broken by a lap of not less than three (3) inches. The brick when set shall be rolled with a roller of five (5) tons weight until the brick is well settled and made firm. When the brick is thoroughly bedded, the surface of the pavement must be true to the form of roadway hereinbefore described.

The joints or spaces between the brick shall be filled with a paving pitch which is the direct result of the distillation of "straight run" coal tar. Said pitch shall be applied on the work at a temperature of two hundred and eighty (280) degrees Fahrenheit. Immediately after applying the paving pitch, and while it is still hot, the entire surface of the pavement shall then receive a one-half (½) inch dressing of clean, coarse sand.

Forty new catch-basins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Vincennes Road and located in the roadway of said Vincennes Road at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines. Each of said catch-basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch-basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch-basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch-basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter, The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch-basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch-basin.

Each of said catch-basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch-basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadway of said Vincennes Road as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement, together with the estimate of the cost thereof made by the Engineer of said Board, both hereto attached, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. That said improvement shall be made and the whole cost thereof be paid for by special assessment in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled, "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SOUTH SIDE ELEVATED RAILROAD CO.
CHICAGO, June 3, 1909.

MR. H. H. EVANS,

Secretary to Committee on Local Transportation, City Hall, Chicago.

DEAR SIR—Replying to your letter of the 2d inst., relative to an order of the City Council directing the Local Transportation Committee to investigate the arrangements made by the various elevated railroad companies to refund or rebate fares paid by passengers, in the event of the inability of the various elevated railroad companies to promptly carry such passengers through to their destination, by reason of a break-down, obstructions, or any negligence on the part of the company, its servants or employees:

I wish to advise you that the rule of this Company, in regard to delays in transporting its patrons, is as follows:

In the event of delay to traffic extending over a period of 10 minutes, passengers, upon request made to the Ticket Agents at a station, are to be refunded fares.

In the case of accidents or delays to trains between stations, where it is possible for trains to be run to a near station point and closed up continuously so as to make a passage way through the trains to the station, to permit passengers to leave the road, this is done.

Where a delay of this kind involves shutting off the power, it is impossible to do this, and in that event, there is no other way than for passengers who desire to leave the train to walk on the cable box between the tracks to the nearest station. Under those conditions there is no danger to the passengers.

To cite an instance of the methods of this Company in handling a case of this kind, I call your attention to a fire which recently occurred in the Coca Cola Building on Wabash avenue near 13th street. On that occasion, the fire marshall ordered the current cut out of the third rail on our structure, which was done, leaving the road dead from 39th street north. We could not move the trains, and those passengers who desired to leave them and go to the street, were compelled to walk on the cable box. South of 40th street we had current on the line, and we continued to take all north-bound passengers coming to our stations south of that point, carrying them to Indiana Avenue Station, which was the last station to which we could transport them in a northerly direction. Passengers were all discharged at that point and their fares refunded to them, so that they could take passage on the Indiana avenue surface line.

In other words: During the period when the current was cut off from our rails north of 39th street, on account of the orders of the Fire Department, we gave every north-bound passenger who came as far as Indiana Avenue Station, a free ride, and I wish to say that our employes are all thoroughly familiar with these rules. It is our effort to do everything we can to accommodate our passengers, and to facilitate their movement on the lines of this Company.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) CHARLES V. WESTON,
President.

CHICAGO AND OAK PARK ELEVATED RAILROAD COMPANY,
CHICAGO, June 8, 1909.

H. H. EVANS, ESQ.,

Secretary to Committee on Local Transportation, 100 Washington St., Chicago.

DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 2d inst., at hand and contents noted. A letter from Mr. Noe explains the matter very fully, a copy of which is as follows:

"CHICAGO, June 4, 1909.

MR. CLARENCE A. KNIGHT,

President.

DEAR SIR—Referring to letter attached from Mr. H. H. Evans, Secretary of the Local Transportation Committee, under date of the 2d inst., with reference to refunding fares, etc., I beg to advise that we have a standing order that whenever a delay occurs and it is definitely known how long or of what character the delay is, passengers are to be advised when entering the stations that trains will run only to some certain point and they have the choice whether or not to board the trains. We have an old order that has been standing for years that where a delay does occur trains are to pull up to station platforms and allow people to exit and in such case fares are refunded. The trains following the train that has pulled up to the station draw up close together to allow the passengers to exit through these trains to the station platform. We have been able to keep people from alighting on the structure up to within the last two or three years, but recently it seems the public takes it for granted they have an absolute right to jump down on the structure and go where they please. Since our recent accident on the North Side we have revived our old instructions, and will if occasion arises in the future undertake to keep people on the cars until we can land them at a station platform. Passengers have no right to climb down to the structure and undertake to walk along the structure.

Yours truly,

E. C. NOE,

General Superintendent."

Yours very truly,

(Signed) CLARENCE A. KNIGHT,

President.

NORTHWESTERN ELEVATED RAILROAD COMPANY,
CHICAGO, June 9, 1909.

MR. H. H. EVANS,

Secretary to Committee on Local Transportation, City Council, City of Chicago.

DEAR SIR—Replying to your letter of June 2nd, this Company has the following standing order relative to refunding fares:

"Whenever there is a delay of more than fifteen minutes to the regular trains and no immediate prospect of the delay being raised, agents are authorized to refund fares, upon application, only to the passengers who paid fare at their stations."

In regard to this question I would like to say that Traction Expert M. B. Hereley made this matter a subject of investigation early in December, 1908, went thoroughly into the question of the rules relative thereto, and the application and compliance therewith.

All agents are also provided with a sign which the Company calls a "Delay" sign, and which reads, in large letters, as follows:

"TRAINS DELAYED."

The instructions relative to the use of this sign are as follows:

"To all Agents:

The delay sign which has been placed in the ticket agents' window at all stations must be hung with the plain side against the window when not required. In case of delay to trains the agents will be advised and these cards displayed and passengers advised of the delay and probable length of time as near as can be estimated."

The use of this sign and the care taken to see that the passengers are incommoded as little as possible, and the circumstances surrounding the selling of our tickets to passengers who wish to go in a direction in which there is no delay, are fully set forth in my letter of May 8th, to Mr. Hereley, in reply to a letter from him on the subject, copy of which letter from me is hereto attached.

I wish to say that on the Northwestern Elevated, in recent accidents, every passenger, with the exception of two, was refunded his fare upon application at the window of the station through which said passenger passed in leaving our structure, and but two cases occurred, which came to my knowledge, where the passengers did not ask for fare but still wanted a refund, and in each of said cases I had refund promptly made to them. We have no desire to collect from our passengers fares for which we do not render service, any more than we are willing to render service for which we do not receive pay, and we believe that we are now doing all that is practical for their protection in the event of delay. After the accidents on this Company's lines, to which you refer, a large number of fares were refunded, which is evidence of the practical operation of our rules.

With regard to the opportunity afforded people desiring so to do, to get from the trains to the surface in such cases we have had in effect for a number of years, rules providing therefor, and we are thankful that they have been called into use but little. Our recent misfortunes, however, have emphasized the wisdom of their issuance, and we have decided to republish them, calling especial attention of our employes thereto, and this has been done in the following manner:

"May 25, 1909.

Mr. C. M. Mock,

Assistant General Manager.

Dear Sir—Please revive our old instructions or write a new order substantially as follows:

In case of delay or blockade on the road and it is necessary to unload passengers, first, prohibit them from climbing to the structure, and then provide an exit for them in the following manner. Have one train pull up to a station platform and let the following cars pull up close to this train so that the passengers can step from one car to the other and then to the station platform. If there are any trains between the wreck and the first station back of the wreck, these trains can back up to join the cars at the station platform so that their passengers can walk through the cars to the platform. Where it is necessary to transfer passengers from express trains to local station platforms, pull the express train up alongside of a train standing on a local track, connect the express cars with local cars by one or two bridge planks long enough to fit from one car to the other, that is from the express cars to the local cars. Each station should be provided with two such bridge planks on the front of station platforms, under the edge of platforms, held in receptacles provided for that purpose, and in this manner provide an easy exit for passengers and prohibit them from alighting from the cars to the structure.

Yours truly,

E. C. Noe,

General Manager."

In this connection I want to say to you that except in cases of very unusual delay, which have been quite rare until the last month, when this company, at least, suffered some unprecedented misfortunes, we have been able to keep our train service moving, and passengers would get down town, if down town they were destined, as quickly by remaining on our cars as by leaving the trains and going to the surface and coming down by the surface cars.

North of Chicago avenue we have a four-track road, and if any one of these tracks is blocked, the other three are available. South of Chicago avenue, unfortunately, and through no fault of this Company, as it has expressed its willingness to construct additional tracks if right should be granted it so to do, the Company has but two tracks, and the plan is when one of these tracks is obstructed, to have the through trains pass off the other track and shuttle a train in one direction only over the clear and otherwise unoccupied single track until the second track is relieved. We have found that this works very well under any ordinary circumstance.

This Company finds, upon a careful investigation amongst its patrons, a very general satisfaction with its service. It is the victim of the circumstance that a few people having or assuming to have a grievance, who desire to exploit and make considerable noise about it, create much more of a harmful impression than the thousands and thousands of satisfied people create a good impression; it is the few and not the many that come to you with complaints.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) M. B. STARRING,
President.

NORTHWESTERN ELEVATED RAILROAD COMPANY,
May 8, 1909.

MR. M. B. HERELEY, Traction Expert,
Department of Local Transportation,
Chicago, Illinois.

DEAR SIR—Your letter of May 7th received. It is quite impossible for me to express to you the sincere regret, not only of myself, but of my operating staff, at the delay occasioned by the breaking of axles on our cars on the 7th inst.

With reference to the question of selling tickets after such an accident has happened, allow me to call your attention to the following statements:

First—The agents have long been instructed as follows:

"To all Agents:

The "delay" sign which has been placed in the ticket agents windows at all stations must be hung with the plain side against the window when not required. In case of delayed trains, the agents will be advised and these cards displayed, and passengers advised of the delay and probable length of time, as near as can be estimated."

Second—Immediately upon receipt of the telephone notice that the first accident had occurred, Mr. Noe issued special directions that passengers should be advised of the delay.

Third—It seems to me quite impractical to attempt to learn from each passenger who comes to a window, we will say at Edgewater if you please, whether he wishes to go north or south. If he wished to go north, there was no reason why he should not do so. If he wished to go south up to any station north of the blockade, there was no reason why he should not be permitted to do so, and if he wished to go to Ravenswood, there was no reason why he should not be permitted to do so.

We have as you know a considerable line which is not affected by a tie-up at any particular point, and while it is in this case undoubtedly true that the majority of passengers boarding our trains at this hour would wish to come south, it seems to me it is somewhat incumbent upon them to pay some attention to the delay signs, and to do something for their own interests.

I am willing to go to the utmost limits consistent with practical operation, but feel that we are most unjustly criticised by many people when an accident occurs, when from my own observations of the steam railroads operated all over the country, we handle our accidents much more promptly and much more considerately for our people than do these other great arteries of travel.

I have had this matter up with Mr. Noe, and I believe we will be able to do better next time than we did this, and none of the foregoing is to be taken as any disinclination on the part of this Company to do all that it should do, and we will be glad at any time to have you take this matter up, for your own information with any one connected with this Company whether or not we are so doing.

With regard to the automobile or wrecking wagon, I will be glad to have you give me some idea as to how you think this could or should be worked out. Perhaps the best thing under all the circumstances will be for us to have a personal talk over the matter, and see if anything can be done in case of future trouble.

In conclusion; it is unnecessary to say to a man of your knowledge and experience that a test of axles after the test made before they are accepted is a difficult thing to accomplish satisfactorily. This company is having Mr. Hunt make a thorough expert examination of the material, etc., in the axles which broke. They develop no visible flaws even after breakage. These axles are of the largest size used by any company I know on their coaches, and were comparatively new. They were purchased from the Standard Steel Company whose reputation is well known to you. There seems to be nothing that the management could have done to avoid the accident, and it regrets if there was anything it could reasonably be expected to do after it occurred, which it neglected to do.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) M. B. STARRING,
President.

THE METROPOLITAN WEST SIDE ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY,
June 19, 1909.

MR. H. H. EVANS,
Secretary Committee on Local Transportation, City Council, Chicago, Illinois.

DEAR SIR—Referring to your letter of June 2nd concerning refund of fare to passengers and the manner in which we handle passengers who are compelled to leave our trains in case of a tie-up on the lines:

For a number of years our agents have been supplied with delay checks and if for any reason trains are delayed for a considerable length of time these delay checks are issued to them. The tickets are good at any time at any of our stations. This arrangement seems to have worked out very satisfactorily. Instructions are also issued to the effect that if there should be a tie-up on the line to bunch the trains to the nearest station, in this way making it unnecessary for them to climb from the cars to the structure. We have had occasion to use this method but once or twice, but when used it proved very efficient.

Yours truly,

(Signed) H. G. HETZLER,
President.

Your Committee on Health Department, to whom was referred (June 8, 1909, page 591) an ordinance regulating the manufacture and bottling of carbonated waters, syrups and flavoring extracts, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of the accompanying substitute ordinance:

AN ORDINANCE

Prescribing rules regulating the manufacture and bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups and flavoring extracts.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. All persons, firms or corporations engaged in the manufacture or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts shall comply with, and licenses shall be issued to such persons, firms or corporations in accordance with the following rules and regulations:

Rule 1. Inspection and Investigation of Premises.) No application for a license to engage in the business of manufacturing or bottling waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts shall be approved by the Commissioner of Health if the inspection and investigation of the Health Department shows that the manufacturing or bottling plant, or any part of the premises in which the business is to be conducted, is in an insanitary condition. If the applicant is refused a license on account of bad sanitary condition or the bottling of goods in soiled or unclean bottles, or the making of syrups in insanitary cans, pots or tubs, he may make application to the Commissioner of Health for a hearing, and thereafter the Commissioner of Health may recommend the issuance of a license if he is satisfied that the city ordinances will be complied with in the future.

Rule 2. Recommendations for Revoking and Reissuing of Licenses.) If at any time after the granting of such license the licensee fails to comply with the city ordinances imposing sanitary regulations, or sells or offers for sale, or has in his possession for the purpose of selling, any such waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts which have been manufactured or bottled contrary to the general provisions of this ordinance, or of other city ordinances relating to the manufacture or bottling of such goods, the Commissioner of Health may recommend to the Mayor that the license be revoked.

Rule 3. Premises, Location and Description.) No plant for the manufacture or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts shall be established or maintained in any room or rooms where any other business is carried on, or in any room or rooms which directly connects with any living room, kitchen or laundry, or which connects in any manner with any horse or cow stable or any place where animals are kept or slaughtered. No such plant shall be maintained in any building in which horses, mules or cows are kept or stabled. The immediate vicinity of all such plants shall be kept free from the accumulation of rubbish, garbage, manure or any other putrefying, decomposing, infectious or bad smelling substances.

Rule 4. Syrups.) Where syrups are manufactured a separate room shall be maintained so that the proper care and sanitary conditions may be observed. No washing of bottles, utensils, or other appliances shall be done in the syrup room, and no storing of rubbish, dirty utensils, bottles, boxes or any other articles not absolutely necessary in the manufacture or handling of syrup shall be allowed in said room. Syrup when manufactured shall be stored or kept in clean bottles or other receptacles and shall be securely covered and sealed, or otherwise kept from contact with the air until used. Syrups shall be carried or conveyed in clean sanitary pipes or in closely covered vessels.

Rule 5. Construction and Equipment.) The floor of all rooms used in manufacturing or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups, or flavoring extracts shall be smooth, free from crevices and defects and water tight. When below the street level the floor must be constructed of impervious material, such as cement, asphalt or tiles laid in cement, and shall be well drained with ventilated and trapped drains. The walls and ceilings shall be smooth and free from unnecessary projections, and shall be kept well painted or lime washed. Between May first and November first all windows shall be provided with fly and dust screens, and all doors shall be provided with self-closing door screens. All such bottling or manufacturing plants shall be provided with adequate ventilation by windows, air shafts, air ducts or other mechanical apparatus, if necessary, so as to insure the free circulation of fresh air at all times. Such plants shall also be provided with adequate light by means of windows or by artificial means if necessary.

Rule 6. Appliances and Utensils.) All tubs, vats and other receptacles used in such plants shall be constructed of impervious material and shall have a smooth inner surface, and shall be provided with closely fitting covers. All machinery and piping that comes in direct contact with the said waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts, or any part thereof, shall be thoroughly sanitary and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Health, or his authorized agent. All cans, bottles, measures, strainers, stirrers and other utensils must be so constructed as to be thoroughly and easily cleansed by simple washing. All such utensils shall be kept clean, in good repair and free from rust and crust. Before filling with waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts, all bottles shall be thoroughly cleaned both inside and outside. All such bottles shall be thoroughly brushed inside and rinsed with clean, fresh, unused water as a final cleansing before such filling for distribution. All bottle caps, corks or other appliances for closing or sealing the bottles shall be thoroughly cleansed and rinsed as above provided before using.

Rule 7. Maintenance and Care.) The floors of all such bottling and manufacturing plants or rooms shall be kept clean by daily scrubbing while in use, and the walls, ceilings, shelves, windows and other surface shall be kept clean and free from dust by washing, or wiping with a damp cloth or brush. Dry sweeping and dusting shall not be permitted. Unnecessary articles, such as boxes, old utensils, reserve stock, blankets, harness, lanterns, paint cans, oil cans, and other articles not required in the business of manufacturing or bottling shall not be kept in the bottling or syrup rooms.

Rule 9. Communicable Diseases.) No person who has consumption, venereal disease or communicable skin disease shall work in such manufacturing or bottling plant or shall engage in the distribution of goods therefrom. When typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria, smallpox, measles or chicken pox occur in the residence or living place of any one engaged or employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts, it shall be the duty of the owner or manager of such business to notify the Division of Food Inspection at once of this fact, so that the necessary regulations can be enforced in co-operation with the Bureau of Contagious Diseases to prevent the spread of the disease. No one suffering with or convalescent from any such disease, or any other communicable disease shall engage or be employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of such waters, syrups or flavoring extracts. When typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria or smallpox occurs in the house or living place of any person engaged or employed in such manufacturing, bottling or distribution, such person shall at once discontinue his work. If any person infected with or convalescent from any of such last mentioned diseases or residing in a house or apartment where any such disease exists has worked in the manufacture or distribution of any such goods, the plant, wagons and bottled goods may be declared infected and the same shall not be reopened, used or sold until a thorough disinfecting has been made of such plant, wagons and goods by the Department of Health. No person convalescent from a contagious disease or living in a house or apartment in which there is a contagious disease shall re-engage or be re-employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of such goods until the Bureau of Contagious Diseases has enforced quarantine regulations and the necessary disinfection has been done by the officers of the Health Department.

SECTION 2. Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the manufacture or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts who shall violate, or permit their employes to violate, any of the foregoing rules and regulations shall be subject to a fine of not less than five ($5.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars for each offense, and in addition to such fine the license of such person, firm or corporation may be revoked at the discretion of the Mayor.

Paragraph 4. The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and its lessee, the Pennsylvania Company, shall elevate its roadbed and tracks from the east line of Cottage Grove avenue to the east line of Stony Island (Jackson Park) avenue, in such manner as will conform to all the specifications of this ordinance in so far as conditions are imposed upon said Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and its lessee, the Pennsylvania Company. If the railway and railroad company, or companies, shall fail, neglect or refuse to repair, keep and maintain the said work in accordance with this paragraph, within five (5) days after notice so to do from the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Public Works may proceed to do, or cause to have done, the work necessary to comply with the same, and collect the cost and expense thereof from the railway and railroad company, or companies, mentioned in this ordinance.

Paragraph 2. As to the streets in this section mentioned, which are already paved or provided with sidewalks, such paving and sidewalks shall be restored with the present material whenever the same is in good condition, by said railway and railroad company or companies, at their own expense, in such portions of such streets as are required to be constructed by said railway and railroad company or companies, except that said company or companies are not required to restore any part of the paving of approaches or subways which will be the duty of any street railway company or other corporation to restore under existing laws and ordinances.

Paragraph 3. Said company, or companies, shall pave the entire length and width of the roadway in such portions of the subways as are required to be constructed by said railway and railroad company, or companies, as is mentioned in this ordinance, except that such company, or companies, shall not be required to pave any part of the subways to be occupied by or adjacent to street railway tracks, which by reason of existing laws or ordinances it will be the duty of any street railway company or other corporation to pave.

Any street railway company occupying any of the streets in the City of Chicago crossed by said elevated railway of any of said companies shall, when and as the grade of such street shall be changed, as in this ordinance provided, at its own expense, without claim for damages conform to the grade of its track or tracks to the said change of grade of said streets, and nothing in this ordinance shall operate or be held to relieve such street railway companies from any liability now existing, however created, to pave or bear the expense of paving such streets between or on either side of the rails of its said tracks in manner and form as now required.

Paragraph 5. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to require the said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, to assume or pay any direct damages to adjacent property caused by the passage and enforcement of this ordinance, or by excavation, elevation, depression or change of grade made in any of the public avenues, streets or alleys, or by the elevation of the tracks of said railway and railroad companies, as herein required to be elevated, or to defend any suit or suits which may be brought by or against any party or parties for the recovery of any such damages; but all such damages, if there be any, shall be adjusted and paid by the City of Chicago and said City will assume the defense of any and all suits brought for the recovery of the same, intervening therein if necessary for the purpose, and will wholly relieve said railway and railroad companies from defending the same and will assume and pay all judgments recovered therein, provided, however, that each of said companies shall be liable respectively, for such damages as may arise from the negligent performance by said company or companies of any of the obligations imposed by this ordinance.

The above stipulations in this paragraph contained, are, however, upon the condition precedent that in case any suit be brought against any of said companies, said company will, providing it has been served with proper summons, at least five (5) days before the return day of such summons, give notice in writing of such suit and of such service to the Mayor and the Corporation Counsel of said City for the purpose of enabling such defense to be made by the City.

SECTION 9. Nothing in this ordinance named or contained shall be so con-

SECTION 10. At least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of any part of such work the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago for his examination, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance in so far as this ordinance contains specific provisions, if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to matters and details which by this ordinance are left to his discretion and judgment, such plans shall be approved by him and after such approval all of the work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith, and shall be done and performed under his superintendence and subject to his inspection, approval and acceptance.

SECTION 11. Permission and authority are hereby granted to said companies, whenever the same shall be necessary in the prosecution of the work they are herein authorized or required to perform, to obstruct temporarily any public avenue, street or alley to such extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and they are also hereby authorized, whenever the same shall become necessary, to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and avenues during the construction of their said elevated railroads, subject to the like approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 12. When the said several railroads in Section 1 of this ordinance mentioned shall have elevated their respective tracks in accordance with this ordinance, so that the same shall be ready for use, then and thereupon all provisions of the ordinance of the City of Chicago relating to the speed of railway trains, the number of cars to constitute a train, the ringing of locomotive bells, the use of train or engine lights, the sounding of signals before starting trains and the maintenance of gates, flagmen, watchmen, signals and signal towers shall cease to be applicable to said railroads within the territory covered by this ordinance. Whenever said railroads shall be elevated, depressed or walled in, or where the same is free from grade crossings, this ordinance shall be in force from and after the acceptance of the same by said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, so far as it is now applicable; provided, however, this ordinance is not to be construed as a waiver or surrender by the City of Chicago of any of its police powers or of the right at any time to pass necessary and reasonable police ordinances in relation to the matters last above enumerated.

After such elevation it shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, save employes of said companies, or either of them, in the discharge of their duties to enter or be upon or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or roadway at any place. If any person shall wilfully trespass upon said elevated roadway, such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense. But the said railway and railroad companies shall be required to light the subways, passageways, and grade crossings hereinbefore required to be constructed in Section 4a of this ordinance, in the manner prescribed by ordinances for the lighting by railway and railroad companies of the portion of their roadbeds and tracks at street crossings.

SECTION 13. In consideration of the acceptance of this ordinance by the said railway and railroad companies, the City undertakes and agrees that it will not hereafter require or attempt to compel said railway and railroad companies at their expense to build any additional or other subways than those in this ordinance provided for between the following points: Sixty-seventh street and Seventy-ninth street on the Illinois Central Railroad and between Cottage Grove avenue and Seventy-ninth street on the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad; and also between Seventy-third street and Stony Island (Jackson Park) avenue on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and its lessee, the Pennsylvania Company; but it is hereby agreed that if the City of Chicago shall at any time hereafter open and extend any street or streets, avenues or alleys, by means of subways only across the right of way and lands of said companies between the points mentioned above, in such case no claim for compensation on account of land taken for right of way of such street or streets, avenue or alleys, will be made by said railway and railroad companies and such waiver of compensation shall attach to and run with such land in the hands of any grantee or grantees of such railway and railroad company or companies, but the sole cost and expense of the construction of such subways and of such bridges as may be necessary to carry all of the tracks of said companies' lands, right of way and yards, over said highways, shall be borne and paid by the City of Chicago without expense to said railway and railroad companies mentioned in this ordinance; and in no case shall any subway or subways, bridge or bridges so to be built, be inferior in any respect to the bridges and subways to be built by the railway and railroad companies across streets provided for in this ordinance. The work of such construction shall be done by the railway or railroad company, or companies, interested and the amount to be paid by the City for such work and construction shall not exceed the actual and reasonable cost thereof. Said bridges, respectively, shall support all the tracks of said company then existing and in use across the line of such proposed street or streets at the time of the construction of such subway across such right of way or yards of said railway and railroad companies. But said railway and railroad company, or companies, shall not be required to do any work towards the construction of any such subways until the cost thereof as may be estimated by the City Engineer and Chief Engineer of said railway and railroad company, or companies, first shall have been paid over to said company, or companies, or deposited in some responsible bank for its or their benefit and to be paid over to it or them at once upon the completion of said work. The time during which said railway and railroad companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, riot or riots, or legal proceedings as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work; provided said railway and railroad company, or companies, give notice to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of said injunction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

And it is further distinctly understood and agreed that if said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be delayed in the prosecution of the said work required to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, by the reason of the obstruction of pipes, conduits, wires or other property of private corporations or individuals, as mentioned in Section 5 of this ordinance, or by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in performing the duties imposed upon the City and its officers by this ordinance, in respect to the work herein required to be done by said railway and railroad companies respectively, then and in that case the time which said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be so delayed shall be added to the time during which said companies are required by the terms of this ordinance to complete said work.

SECTION 15. Each and every company required by this ordinance to elevate its tracks shall do its portion of the work in accordance with the terms hereof in apt and proper time so as not to interfere with the proper and orderly prosecution of such work as a whole. Should any company fail or neglect so to prosecute its work, the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago shall have and is hereby given the right, power and authority to give ten (10) days' notice in writing to such delinquent company to prosecute its work. If such company shall fail or neglect to comply with said notice, the Commissioner of Public Works shall take charge of and cause such work to be done and the expense thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company. Any time during which any of said companies may be prevented by delay of any other of said companies shall be added to the total time allowed to the company so delayed for the completion of its own work.

SECTION 16. In case any of the railway and railroad companies mentioned in this ordinance shall be unable to purchase the property required, hereinbefore to be dedicated, at a price deemed by said railway or railroad companies to be reasonable, then the same shall be condemned by the City of Chicago for street purposes and the compensation of damage awarded in such proceedings, including court costs and all other expense of litigation that may be incurred in such condemnation proceedings, shall be paid by said railway or railroad companies and said railway or railroad companies shall have the right to take part in said condemna-

CHICAGO, July 1, 1909.

Mr. Francis D. Connery, City Clerk.

DEAR SIR—Please call special meeting of City Council for 3 o'clock P. M., Friday, July 2, 1909, in the Council Chamber, to take suitable action on the death of Col. Henry S. Dietrich, late President Board of Local Improvements.

(Signed) B. W. Snow,
W. P. Dunn,
John P. Stewart,
C. E. Merriam,
Dennis J. Egan,
John A. Richert,
Herman J. Bauler,
Thomas F. Scully,
James F. Clancy.

Ald. Snow presented resolutions as follows:

Whereas, Colonel Henry S. Dietrich, President of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, departed this life on the first day of July, 1909, after 48 years of faithful service to his city, state and nation, therefore, be it Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Chicago in special meeting assembled, that the following minute of the career of Colonel Dietrich be spread upon the records of this Council in memory of his unselfish devotion to the cause of public service.

Colonel Dietrich was born in Detroit, Michigan, March 3, 1844. Educated in the public schools of that city he came to Chicago in 1858.

In 1861, at the age of 17, he enlisted in Company A, Chicago Zouaves, under Captain James R. Hayden. Later he reenlisted in Company A, 19th Illinois, Colonel John B. Turchin commanding, serving in the west under General Buell and in the Army of the Cumberland under General Rosecrans, with whom he took part in the battles of Stone River, Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge, ending his services in the campaign against Atlanta under General Sherman. He was mustered out in July, 1864, and served as a civilian in the quartermaster's department of the army until 1868.

In 1897 Colonel Dietrich was appointed to the staff of Governor Tanner and served as general inspector of rifle practice of the Illinois National Guard continuously thereafter under Governors Tanner, Yates and Deneen.

In 1868 Colonel Dietrich entered the real estate business in Chicago and in 1901 was elected President of the Chicago Real Estate Board.

In 1907 Mayor Busse appointed Colonel Dietrich a member of the Board of Local Improvements, of which he was elected President and which position he held at the time of his death.

Colonel Dietrich leaves him surviving a widow, one son and one daughter.

As a patriotic citizen and soldier Colonel Dietrich freely gave of his best to his country, serving with conspicuous gallantry in some of the most stubborn contests of the civil war.

As a member of the staff of three Governors he served his state well and long.

As President of the Board of Local Improvements he brought to the discharge of his duties a high order of character and ability which distinguished him as the best type of public servant in the employ of the city. By his conscientious devotion to the delicate and difficult duties of that office, and by his painstaking and courteous treatment of the public, he has placed the Board of Local Improvements upon a high plane of efficiency and has inspired public confidence in the integrity and capacity of that body.

Colonel Dietrich combined with high administrative efficiency a sweet and lovable disposition which endeared him to his associates and all who knew him.

It is Therefore, The sense of this Council, that in the death of Colonel Dietrich the nation has lost one of its enthusiastic defenders, the state a strong officer and the city a faithful ally and friend. Soldier-like he remained on the firing line to the end. His sense of justice and fairness and his unselfish devotion to the city's welfare will ever be an inspiration and an example to his fellow-citizens.

May he rest in peace.

Be it Further Resolved, That out of respect to the memory of Colonel Dietrich the city hall be closed at twelve o'clock noon Saturday, July 3, 1909, and that the Council attend his funeral in a body, and that an engrossed copy of these resolutions be sent to his family by the City Clerk.

Ald. Snow moved to adopt the said resolutions.

The motion prevailed, and the resolutions were adopted unanimously, by a rising vote.

Placed on file.

ALSO,

A veto message as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return without my approval an order passed by your Honorable Body June 28, 1909, directing the General Superintendent of Police to permit men and boys to remain in the city parks and playgrounds at all hours of the day or night. The Special Park Commission has informed me that there are serious objections to this order, there being danger that the parks would become the resort of mischief makers and ruffians.

It seems to me that the intention of the order is meritorious and that the result desired can be reached in case of an emergency, during the hot weather, by allowing the General Superintendent of Police to co-operate with the Special Park Commission without any such order from your Honorable Body.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Britten moved to reconsider the vote by which the order referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

ALSO,

A veto message as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith without my approval an order passed by your Honorable Body at its last regular meeting on June 28, 1909, and published at page 890 of the current printed Council Proceedings of that date, which order directs the Commissioner of Public Works to grant permits for the improvement of any alley or street by private contract where the frontage owners are unanimous for any certain improvement, and provided the Board of Local Improvements has not advertised or awarded any contract for the same. This order is returned unapproved for the reason (1) that by its provisions the Commissioner of Public Works is authorized to issue permits for alley or street paving after an ordinance has been recommended for paving by the Board of Local Improvements and duly passed by the City Council; (2) that certain patented articles may be used as paving which are not desired by the city, nor recommended by the Board of Local Improvements, and repairs cannot be made except by the patentee; (3) that although the Board of Local Improvements does not object to private paving of streets and alleys where no public improvement has been ordered and no public hearing had thereon, nevertheless, it is a practice of the Commissioner of Public Works at present to refuse any permits for street or alley paving where a public improvement has been directed by the Board of Local Improvements after a regular hearing, as provided by law.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Ryan moved to reconsider the vote by which the order referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Ryan moved that the order be passed, the veto of His Honor, the Mayor, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The motion was lost.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I desire to bring to your attention, with a view to future action, the so-called Chicago plan for the development and improvement of our city, with which plan you have all doubtless been made acquainted by newspaper publication and otherwise and which has been or soon will be laid before you in detail.

In my judgment, the men who have fathered this project have done a most important work for their city and their fellow citizens. They have labored unselfishly as volunteers. They have given freely of their time and energy and money for a number of years to produce a clear, concrete and comprehensive plan of municipal development calculated to utilize the natural advantages of Chicago in the direction of making it a beautiful and attractive city as well as a commercial metropolis. I am now asked to present the result of their work to you with a view to securing your co-operation and, in presenting it, to make clear certain points as follows:

1. The central idea out of which the Chicago plan has grown, as I understand it, is this: If Chicago is to become, as we all believe, the greatest and most attractive city on this continent, its development and improvement should be guided along certain definite and pre-arranged lines to the end that the necessary expenditures for public improvements from year to year may serve not only the purpose of the moment but also the needs of the future; and to the end further that improvements made from time to time, and piecemeal, as necessity calls for them, may in the long run fit into and become parts of a well-considered, consistent, practical, organized scheme of municipal development.

2. The Chicago plan has been formulated as a basis and starting point, as it were, from which to work in the development of an official municipal plan that shall embrace the making of public improvements and the development of public utilities in coming years. It is not presented to us as a hard and fast plan to be accepted or rejected as it stands. It is presented more as a suggestion of the possibilities of our situation, to be utilized in whole or in part in the development of an official plan as the best judgment of this community may determine.

3. The Chicago plan is not presented as a scheme for spending untold millions of dollars now or in the future; on the contrary, it is a comprehensive suggestion of what may be accomplished in the course of years—it may be fifty, it may be a hundred—by spending in conformity with a well defined plan the money which we must spend anyhow from time to time on permanent public improvements. Paris has been made the world's most beautiful city only because she has followed for more than fifty years the policy of making public improvements in conformity with a clearly defined plan. If the Chicago plan were adopted now, a good start towards its realization could be made at once and without a dollar of cost to the people by having the refuse and excavated materials, disposition of which is becoming a burden, dumped in the lake at specified localities for the making of islands, outer parks, etc.

4. The Chicago plan is in conflict with no other plan or project for the industrial or commercial development of Chicago. It fits in with the recommendations of the Harbor Commission; it takes into account and provides for the city's growing transportation needs both in relation to steam roads and in relation to transportation within the city limits and communication between the different divisions of the city.

5. This plan is not to be considered as the embodiment of an artist's dream or the project of theoretical city beautifiers who have lost sight of every day affairs and who have forgotten the needs and interests of the mass of the people. On the contrary, the men who have produced the Chicago plan are all hard-headed business men whose interests individually and collectively are bound up absolutely with the industrial and commercial growth of this city. They are men who have learned by experience and observation that development, and beautification, if you please, making Chicago attractive to visitors from all parts of the world, will add to Chicago's resources a very great commercial asset, the value of which will be reflected in every piece of real estate within our limits. In producing this plan they have particularly had in mind relief for the neglect from which the great West Side has suffered and for the congestion at the city's commercial center which has so impeded healthy growth of the entire business district. In short, they have had in mind at every step in the production of the Chicago plan not only the artistic but the commercial and industrial development of the City of Chicago along lines that promise the best results at the least expenditure of time, effort and money.

6. The Chicago plan does not contemplate the remodeling of Chicago in a year or a decade. It is the suggestion of a plan for the far future—a suggestion of something to grow to. The suggestion is offered now because the sooner comprehensive planning and building are undertaken the more quickly results will be accomplished and the less they will cost.

The fathers of the Chicago plan have asked for the appointment of a commission to take up this question and study further the problems involved in the Chicago plan, with a view to determining whether it is feasible to adopt any part of said plan now, and if so, where to begin.

Therefore, I respectfully recommend that your Honorable Body authorize the Mayor to appoint such a commission to be composed of members of your Honorable Body and citizens, whose duty it shall be to take up this question, to the end that the whole city and all elements in it may be fully informed as to what is contemplated in this plan for the future, so that an official plan of Chicago may be produced that will have the endorsement and support of the entire municipality.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Long moved that the said communication be published in the Journal and placed on file, and that the Mayor be authorized to appoint a commission in accordance with his recommendation contained in the said communication.

The following communication, which was ordered published and placed on file:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—A meeting was held in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works on July 2, 1909, at 10:30 A. M., at which were present Edward J. Brundage, Corporation Counsel; Bernard W. Snow, Chairman of the Comittee on Finance, and myself, composing the Commission designated by the Chicago Telephone Company's ordinance of November 6, 1907, under Section 6, paragraph g, to pass upon a practical meter on measured service lines.

This meeting was for the purpose of passing upon the practicability of a telephone meter submitted by the National Measured Service Company (the only meter submitted for consideration).

After consideration we were unanimously of the opinion that the meter submitted did not comply with the provisions contained in said ordinance nor was its mechanical construction complete. This decision was based mainly upon a report made by R. W. Hunt & Co., Engineers, to said National Measured Service Company. Said report in itself would not justify this Commission in recommending said meter for general use at this time.

The Commission adjourned subject to the call of the chairman with the expectation that a practical meter will soon be submitted for further consideration.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) JOHN J. HANBERG,
Chairman.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—About a month ago the City's steamer, John P. Hopkins, used by the division of bridges and harbor, was found to be leaking so badly that it was necessary to remove its boiler and engine and pull the hull ashore to prevent it from sinking. A careful examination of the hull showed that it was practically worthless and the boilers beyond repair.

Since that time the repair work on the bridges has been impeded to a considerable extent by the lack of a tug for transporting material to the different jobs, and supplies to the various bridges.

We are in receipt of a proposal from James Rolson, owner of the tug R. P. Easton, that he will sell said tug with equipment complete to the City of Chicago for $1,500. The City Bridge Engineer reports that this boat is suitable for the City's work and the price very reasonable.

I respectfully ask that your Honorable Body have an order passed authorizing the Commissioner of Public Works to enter into a contract, without advertising, with said Rolson for the purchase of said boat at a price not to exceed $1,500.

Very truly yours,
JOHN J. HANBERG,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ald. Snow moved that authority be granted the Commissioner of Public Works as requested in the said communication, to enter into a contract, without advertising, with James Rolson for the purchase of the tug "R. P. Easton" at a price not to exceed $1,500.

The motion prevailed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Harding, Pringle, Foreman, Richert, Dailey, McKenna, Sheahan, McCoid, Long, Snow, Merriam, Jones, Emerson, Fick, Egan, Hurt, Scully, Novak, Cullerton, Cermak, Zimmer, Evans, Fulton, Lucas, Lawley, Beilfuss, Utpatel, Koraleski, Kunz, Dever, Sitts, Conlon, Brennan, Powers, Finn, Stewart, Foell, Taylor, Clettenberg, Bauler, Britten, Hey, Redwanz, Krumholz, Thomson, Dunn, Reinberg, Lipps, Clancy, Capp, Blencoe, Littler, Golombiewski, Mueller, McInerney, Kearns, Rea, Fisher, Bihl, Reading, Nolan, Ryan, Forsberg, Clark—64.

D. 1898, relating to the corrected elevation of the Old Lind Block bench mark, which determines the base or datum for City levels.

The said roadway of said Indiana avenue between said points, and also the roadways of all intersecting streets and alleys extended from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of said Indiana avenue between said points (except from a line parallel with and twenty-six (26) feet south of the north line of 40th street to the south line of 40th street, and except the intersections of 43d street and 47th street with Indiana avenue, and also except street railway rights of way thereon between said points, which rights of way are by the ordinances granting them required to be paved and kept in repair by the railway companies owning, operating and controlling the same), shall be so graded that after being thoroughly puddled, and rolled with a roller of ten (10) tons weight until the roadbeds are thoroughly compacted, and after the pavement hereinafter described shall have been placed thereon, the surface of the pavement at the center of the finished roadway of said Indiana avenue, and the center of the finished roadways of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of said Indiana avenue, except where the roadways are occupied by street railway rights of way, shall coincide with the established grade of said Indiana avenue, hereinbefore described, and where said roadways are occupied by street railway rights of way the entire width of all such rights of way shall coincide with the established grade hereinbefore described, and the surface of the said finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catch basins and adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be four (4) inches below said established grade, and the surface of the finished roadways at the catch basin inlets in the gutters adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be twelve (12) inches below said established grade.

The slope of the gutters adjoining the roadway face of said curb shall be uniform from the summits to the catch-basins, and a transverse section of said finished roadway and said gutter flags where the same is not occupied by street railway rights of way, shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of said finished roadway, and a transverse section of said finished roadway and said gutter flags where the same is occupied by street railway rights of way shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the established grade of the street at each side of said street railway rights of way, at every part of said Indiana avenue, and at every part of all intersecting streets, between said points.

The surface of the finished pavement in all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified shall be four (4) inches below the top of the curb on each side of said alley intersections, at the street lines produced of said Indiana avenue, and shall slope thence at a uniform grade to its intersection with the gutters hereinbefore described.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points and between said gutter flags shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent. will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry, and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar; each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface. The surface of said layer of concrete shall be parallel with and five (5) inches below the top of the finished pavement.

Upon the concrete foundation as above specified shall be spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure when compacted a uniform depth of one (1) inch, and upon said layer of sand shall be placed blocks of southern long leaf yellow pine, or tamarack, or other woods equally as good for paving purposes. Said blocks shall be four (4) inches in depth and three and three-fourths (3¾) inches in width and shall be not less than six (6) inches nor more than twelve (12) inches in length, with the fiber of the wood running in the direction of the depth.

Said blocks shall be made of sound timber and shall be square edged, free from bark, shakes, loose or rotten knots, red heart, or dead timber or defects which will interfere with the proper laying of the same. No second growth timber shall be used, and all blocks must be of the same kind of wood.

Said blocks shall be placed in an air-tight chamber, where by means of steam and a vacuum pump the sap in the blocks shall be vaporized and the moisture in them removed. When the blocks are thoroughly dry, the wood preserving oil hereinafter described shall be admitted into the chamber and subjected to a pressure which shall be maintained until sixteen (16) pounds of the oil shall have been forced into each cubic foot of timber. The wood preserving oil shall be creosote oil, and shall have a specific gravity of one and one-tenth (1 1/10) at a temperature of twenty-five (25) degrees Centigrade. When subjected to a distilling test, at a temperature of three hundred and fifteen (315) degrees Centigrade, in the manner hereinafter described, it shall lose not more than forty (40) per cent. by weight.

The apparatus for distilling the wood preserving oil shall consist of a stoppered glass retort, having a capacity of eight (8) ounces up to the bend of the neck of the retort. The thermometer shall be placed in the retort so that the bulb thereof shall be one-half (½) inch above the creosote oil in the retort at the commencement of the distillation, and this position shall be maintained throughout the operation. When one hundred (100) grams of the oil are placed in the retort thus equipped, and heat applied until the thermometer registers three hundred and fifteen (315) degrees Centigrade, not more than forty (40) per cent., by weight, of said oil shall volatilize.

The blocks shall be laid in parallel courses across the said roadways at an angle of forty-five (45) degrees with the center line thereof, except the intersections of all alleys, where said blocks shall be laid perpendicular to the center line of each of said alleys. The courses shall break joints alternately and the blocks shall be driven tightly together, except where spaces for expansion shall be left as follows: The joints parallel with and adjoining the gutter flags shall be one (1) inch in width, and at intervals of one hundred (100) feet along the said roadways the joints running across the same shall be one-half (½) inch in width. All the joints shall be filled with bituminous cement which will resist the solvent action of the wood preserving oil, and which shall be applied on the work at a temperature of not less than three hundred (300) degrees Fahrenheit.

The blocks when set shall be rolled with a roller of five (5) tons weight until the blocks are well settled and made firm. When said blocks are firmly bedded in said layer of sand, the surface of the pavement must be true to the form of roadway hereinbefore described.

Immediately after the spreading of the paving cement, and while it is still hot, the surface of the pavement shall be covered to a depth of one-fourth (¼) of an inch with screened, dry torpedo sand.

Twenty new catch basins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Indiana avenue and located in the roadway of said Indiana avenue at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines. Each of said catch basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch basin.

Each of said catch basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902 Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine-inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadway of said Indiana avenue as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement, together with the estimate of the cost thereof made by the Engineer of said Board, both hereto attached, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. That said improvement shall be made and the whole cost thereof be paid for by special assessment in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 4. That the aggregate amount herein ordered to be assessed against the property, and also the assessment on each lot and parcel of land therein assessed shall be divided into five installments in the manner provided by the statute in such cases made and provided, and each of said installments shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum according to law until paid.

SECTION 5. And for the purpose of anticipating the collection of the second and succeeding installments of said assessment for said improvement, bonds shall be issued payable out of said installments bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually, and signed by the Mayor and by the President of the Board of Local Improvements, countersigned by the City Comptroller and attested by the City Clerk under the corporate seal of the City of Chicago. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with and shall in all respects conform to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled, "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 6. That the Attorney of said Board be and he is hereby directed to file a petition in the Circuit, Superior or County Court of Cook County, Illinois, in the name of the City of Chicago, praying that steps may be taken to levy a special assessment for said improvement in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and in the manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 7. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

street hereinbefore described, and where said roadways are occupied by street railway rights of way, the entire width of all such rights of way shall coincide with the established grade hereinbefore described, and the surface of the finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catch basins and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls shall be four (4) inches below said established grade, and the surface of the finished roadways at the catch basin inlets in the gutters sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls shall be twelve (12) inches below said established grade.

The slope of the gutters along a line parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls on each side of said West 12th street, and on each side of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of said West 12th street shall be uniform from the summits to the catch basins; and the surface of the finished roadways adjoining the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls shall be parallel with and three (3) inches above the grade of the gutters hereinbefore described, and shall slope thence at a uniform rate to said line parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls; and a transverse section of said finished roadways between the said lines parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls, where the same are not occupied by street railway rights of way, shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of said finished roadways, and a transverse section of said finished roadways where the same are occupied by street railway rights of way shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the established grade of the street at each side of said street railway rights of way at every part of said West 12th street and at every part of all intersecting streets between said points, and between said lines parallel with and sixteen (16) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls.

The surface of the finished pavement in all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified shall be four (4) inches below the top of the curbstones and cement curb and four (4) inches above the top of the curbwalls on each side of said alley intersections at the street lines produced of said West 12th street, and shall slope thence at a uniform grade to its intersection with the gutters hereinbefore described.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between the points hereinbefore described shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent. will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities shall be thoroughly mixed dry and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar. Each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface, and upon this foundation shall be evenly spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure when compacted a depth of two (2) inches, upon which shall be laid the brick pavement.

The brick to be used shall be of the best quality of vitrified paving brick. The dimensions of said brick shall be the same throughout the entire work, and shall be four (4) inches in depth, not less than eight (8) inches in length and three and one-fourth (3¼) inches in thickness, with edges rounded to a radius of one-fourth (¼) of an inch.

Said brick shall be of a kind known as repressed, vitrified paving brick, and shall be repressed to the extent that the maximum amount of material is forced into them. They shall be free from lime and other impurities, shall be as nearly uniform in every respect as possible, shall be burned so as to secure the maximum hardness, so annealed as to reach the ultimate degree of toughness and vitrified so as to make a homogeneous mass.

The brick shall be free from laminations and fire cracks, or checks of more than superficial character or extent.

Twenty (20) or more of said brick shall be furnished to the Board of Local Improvements for submission to the "abrasion" test. Said test shall be made in the machine known as the "Rattler," which shall measure twenty (20) inches in length and twenty-eight (28) inches in diameter, inside measurements. The charge shall be composed of said brick and iron abrasive material. The brick charge shall consist of that number of whole brick whose combined volume most nearly amounts to eight (8) per cent. of the volume of the rattling chamber, and the abrasive charge shall consist of three hundred (300) pounds of shot made of ordinary machinery cast-iron. Said shot shall consist of cubical pieces having sides of one and one-half (1½) inches, aggregating two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds in weight, and pieces two and one-half (2½) inches square and four and one-half (4½) inches in length, aggregating seventy-five (75) pounds in weight. The rattler after being thus charged shall be revolved eighteen hundred (1800) times, and the speed of rotation shall not fall below twenty-eight (28), nor exceed thirty (30) per minute. The loss of weight by abrasion during such test shall not exceed eighteen (18) per cent. of the original weight of the brick tested. All brick used must be equal in every respect to the brick submitted for test.

The brick shall be laid as follows, to-wit: Broken brick can only be used to break joints in starting courses and in making closures, but in no case shall less than one-fourth (¼) of a brick be used. The brick shall be set lengthwise on edge, with the ends close together, across said roadbeds, parallel to vertical planes which shall be at right angles to the curb lines of said roadways, except the space sixteen (16) inches in width adjoining the roadway face of said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls, where said brick shall be set lengthwise on edge, with the ends close together, parallel with said curbstones, said cement curb and said curbwalls. On roadway intersections the brick shall be set lengthwise on edge, with the ends close together, and parallel to vertical planes which shall be at an angle of forty-five (45) degrees with the center line of the streets. The spaces between the sides of the brick shall be not less than one-eighth (⅛) of an inch nor more than one-fourth (¼) of an inch in width. The joints shall be broken by a lap of not less than three (3) inches. The brick when set shall be rolled with a roller of five (5) tons weight until the brick is well settled and made firm. When the brick is thoroughly bedded, the surface of the pavement must be true to the form of roadway hereinbefore described.

The joints or spaces between the brick shall be filled with a paving pitch which is the direct result of the distillation of "straight run" coal tar. Said pitch shall be applied on the work at a temperature of two hundred and eighty (280) degrees Fahrenheit. Immediately after applying the paving pitch, and while it is still hot, the entire surface of the pavement shall then receive a one-half (½) inch dressing of clean, coarse sand.

Thirty new catch basins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in West 12th street, and located in the roadway of said West 12th street at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines. Each of said catch basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each said catch basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch basin.

Each of said catch basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902 Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine-inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadway of said West 12th street, as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement, together with the estimate of the cost thereof made by the Engineer of said Board, both hereto attached, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. That said improvement shall be made and the whole cost thereof be paid for by special assessment in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 5. And for the purpose of anticipating the collection of the second and succeeding installments of said assessment for said improvement, bonds shall be issued payable out of said installments bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually, and signed by the Mayor and by the President of the Board of Local Improvements, countersigned by the City Comptroller and attested by the City Clerk under the corporate seal of the City of Chicago. CHICAGO, July 6, 1909.

Alderman Francis W. Taylor,
Chairman Building Committee,
New City Hall, Chicago Ill.

DEAR SIR—We enclose orders on the Chicago City Hall, which involve an extra of $18,001.90 and a credit of $1,765.00, leaving a net extra of $16,236.90, as follows:

ITEM NO. 1. This is a change in the landing of the East Corridor Stairs, which makes the string one continuous width so that the soffits will be curved at landings instead of broken heights as recently contemplated. This causes a change in the structural steel at the landings and the tutti colori soffits in ten complete sets of the east corridor stairs from fifth to ninth floors inclusive. Extra, $1,085.00.

ITEM NO. 2. Changes on Sheets 154 to 159 inclusive, and shows revised plan of the Office of the Commissioner of Public Works on the 4th story. This is a new arrangement of this office, and necessitates the stairway from the Accounting Room down to the vault floor. The Deputy Commissioner's office has been made larger, a waiting room and small vault added, and the Commissioner's private office has been made larger, and various other changes in this Department. A change in the office of the Secretary of Police in the space formerly occupied by the Assistant Superintendent of Police on the fifth floor, and an entire re-arrangement of the offices. The offices of the Assistant Superintendent of Police are changed to the space formerly occupied by the Board of Examining Engineers on the third floor. An entire re-arrangement of offices. There have been several changes in the City Architect's office on the 10th floor. There has been a staircase from the City Engineer's office on the 4th floor to his vault on the vault floor, with partitions enclosing stairs of this Department, and also the Department of the Commissioner of Public Works on this vault story. On the northeast end of the 10th floor, the Library and Municipal Museum have been entirely changed in location and shape. The Public Corridor has been extended, and a portion of the space has been sub-divided for the use of the Board of Examining Engineers. This is a net extra of $4,449.00.

ITEM NO. 3. A change in both the City Clerk's and the City Collector's vaults, toilet rooms, and locker rooms in the basement, and other changes which are necessitated by those mentioned above. There is also a revision of offices on the first floor, the only offices that remain unchanged being the Post Office and the Office of the Fire Marshal. There are also new rooms in the Water Department Inspectors and Addressograph Division in the former unassigned space in the basement. This is a total extra of $3,677.00.

ITEM NO. 4. Is a revision of the Mayor's office on the fifth floor. This has been a general revision, enlarging the Mayor's office and increasing the beauty of the entire suite. This is an extra of $1,720.00.

ITEM NO. 5. Changes made in the Council Chamber and the Aldermen's Retiring Room. These changes are made for the refinement and betterment of the rooms, and it is the idea of everyone concerned to have these the "show rooms" of the City Hall. There have been changes in the height of the gallery ceilings, and an increase in the ventilation at this point. There have been several changes in the different panel carvings, and in the windows in the back of the gallery. The north wall of the Aldermen's Retiring Room has been moved toward the Council Chamber so that the pilasters work out the same on all walls. There have been additional ceiling beams added in space between each of the large beams. Pilasters in the corners of the room have been placed farther apart, and consoles have been added in the frieze. A special feature has been made of the Mayor's desk group, by adding carving to the desk and by adding a carved canopy. This is a total extra of $7,070.00.

There are two credits as follows:

ITEM NO. 1 This is for substituting a 5-inch moulded cast iron nosing for iron nosing and facias in the elevator wells, plaster facias taking the place of the iron except at the second floor level, where iron and marble remain. This makes a much more satisfactory job, for less money. The amount of the credit is $500.00.

ITEM NO. 2. This is a credit on the change in the La Salle street entrance. The top or deck of the barrel ceiling in the three sections of the said entrance go with the inside or back faces of the framework over this deck, and in the north and south sections to be made of steel. The deck of the central section to be electro-plated in bronze. The other decks and the inside faces above mentioned to be painted a dead black, as they are not exposed. This is a credit of $1,265.00.

AN ORDINANCE

Requiring the Commissioner of Public Works to serve notice concerning applications for street opening permits upon the Aldermen.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. It is hereby made the duty of the Commissioner of Public Works, upon the application for a permit for the opening of any street, alley or public highway in the City of Chicago, by any person or private corporation, to cause a written notice to be mailed to each of the Aldermen of the ward within which is located that portion of the street, alley or public highway sought to be opened, and, excepting in cases of emergency where the destruction of life or property is imminent, said Commissioner shall withhold the issuance of said permit until forty-eight hours after said written notice to said Aldermen has been deposited in the mail.

SECTION 2. This ordinance, so far as it conflicts with Sections 1890 and 2139, or any other sections of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, or any of the provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago, shall be taken and construed as, and is hereby declared to be, amendatory of said sections and said ordinances respectively.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

Which was, by unanimous consent, on motion of Ald. Egan, duly passed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Harding, Pringle, Foreman, Richert, Dailey, McKenna, Sheahan, McCoid, Long, Snow, Merriam, Jones, Emerson, Fick, Egan, Hurt, Scully, Novak, Cullerton, Cermak, Zimmer, Evans, Fulton, Lucas, Lawley, Beilfuss, Utpatel, Koraleski, Kunz, Dever, Sitts, Conlon, Powers, Finn, Stewart, Foell, Taylor, Clettenberg, Bauler, Britten, Hey, Redwanz, Krumholz, Thomson, Dunn, Reinberg, Lipps, Clancy, Capp, Blencoe, Littler, Golombiewski, Mueller, McInerney, Kearns, Rea, Fisher, Bihl, Reading, Nolan, Ryan, Forsberg, Clark—63.

Ald. Egan presented the following ordinance:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That no person or persons, corporation or corporations shall hereafter construct, reconstruct, or repair any viaduct extending over any railroad track or tracks in the City of Chicago, except in accordance with the following specifications, to-wit:

Street viaducts passing over railway tracks shall be calculated and designed for the following loads, unit stresses and conditions:

1. DEAD LOAD.

The dead load shall consist of the actual weight of the structure.

2. LIVE LOADS.

For calculating the stresses in the chords of the trusses and girders of 100 feet and more in length the live load shall be assumed to be an equally distributed load of 100 pounds per square foot on the roadway and sidewalks.

For calculating spans of less than 100 feet in length and for calculating the web members (diagonals, posts, counters), and the entire floor system (floor beams, stringers, hangers) and all connections, directly affected, of spans of any length, below and above 100 feet, the following loads and combination of loads giving maximum stresses shall be assumed:

a. A line of fully loaded street cars on each track and 100 pounds additional live load per square foot on the sidewalks and on the space of the roadway not occupied by the street cars. Each street car weighing, fully loaded 35 tons, measuring 49 feet 2 inches in length over all, resting on two trucks 20 feet 1 inch centers and each of these trucks having two axles 4 feet 9 inch centers. Distribution of load on all wheels considered to be uniform and strip occupied by each car line assumed to be ten (10) feet wide.

b. One fully loaded street car, as just described, on one track and one 4,000 gallon gravity sprinkler on the other track and 100 pounds additional live load per square foot placed as above. Said sprinkler weighing 84,000 pounds and resting on two trucks 16 feet 4 inch centers and each of these trucks having two axles, 6 feet centers. Length of sprinkler 29 feet 6 inches over all and strip occupied assumed to be ten (10) feet wide.

c. Placed on any portion of the roadway either:

One street steam roller, weighing 34,000 pounds, i. e. 11,000 pounds on fore wheel which is 24 inches wide, and 11,500 pounds on each hind wheel, which are 18 inches wide each and spaced 5 feet centers. Distance centers of wheel axles, 10 feet 9 inches. Assumed space occupied by roller, 10 feet wide by 25 feet long, or

One concentrated load of 24 tons on two axles, 10 feet centers with wheels 5 feet centers occupying a strip 12 feet, and

One hundred pounds per square foot on the space not occupied by the just given alternative concentrated loads.

3. WIND LOAD.

For calculating lateral bracings a lateral wind force of 150 pounds per lineal foot of unloaded chord and 300 pounds per lineal foot of loaded chord—the 300 pounds to be considered as moving—shall be assumed.

Full stress diagrams figured for above loads shall be submitted in which the influence of the dead load, live loads and wind load are separately shown, also maxima and minima stresses which are possible in each member and resulting from a possible combination of above loads.

4. UNIT STRESSES.

The permissible unit stresses given in these specifications below are in pounds per square inch for structural steel of uniform quality and made by the open hearth process in accordance with the specifications for "Material and Workmanship," given in the second part of the "General Specifications for Steel Railroad Bridges," second edition, 1906, and adopted by the American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way Association, and are limited by provisions for minimum sections and special cases as given in separate paragraphs.

For existing viaducts constructed of wrought iron and yet in a condition sound enough to be reinforced for the above given loads, the permissible unit stresses in pounds per square inch of the actual and useful present cross sections of members —that is of the remaining physically sound portion of the original cross section, after allowing for loss by rust, crystallization and mechanical depreciation, shall be four-fifths of the values given below, for structural steel.

$\frac{l}{r}$ is the ratio of the length of the member to its least radius of gyration, both in inches.

Alternate Tension and Compression:

For members subject to alternate tension and compression, the expression ..... $1-\frac{\text{1 max. stress of lesser kind}}{\text{2 max. stress of greater kind}}$ shall be substituted in above formula for the expression..... $(1+\frac{\text{min.}}{2 \text{ max.}})$

Shearing and Bearing Values:

Shearing on web sheets—one kind—gross section..... 6,500 $(1+\frac{\text{min.}}{2 \text{ max.}})$

Shearing on web sheets—opposite kind—gross section . . .. 6,500 $(1-\frac{\text{1 max. shear of lesser kind}}{\text{2 max. shear of greater kind}})$ with the assumption that net section is 2/3 or more of gross section.

Bearing on shop rivets	15,000 per square inch
Shearing on field rivets	6,000 per square inch
Bearing on field rivets	12,000 per square inch
Shearing on pins	9,000 per square inch
Bearing on pins	18,000 per square inch

The bearing pressure in pounds per lineal inch on steel friction rollers shall not exceed 1,000 pounds times the square root of the diameter of the roller in inches.

The bending stress in regular bridge pins, shall not exceed 21,000 pounds.

Limitations for Sections:

No material shall be used in general of less thickness than three-eighths (⅜) of an inch, except for fillers, and lattice bars, as per schedule, and for the following items for which 5/16 inch metal will be allowed:

For buckled plates with concrete filling.

For webs of sidewalk brackets.

For webs of top chord members with excess of section and situated above the floor.

For webs of sidewalk stringers.

For top laterals, portal webs and brackets, if situated entirely above floor.

No rivets less than three-fourths (¾) of an inch diameter shall be used in any main members, nor less than five-eighths (⅝) of an inch diameter for riveting of buckled plates and in any lattice bar.

No compression member shall have a length exceeding 125 times its least radius of gyration or 45 times its least side.

No plate used in compression shall have an unsupported width of more than thirty (30) times its thickness perpendicular to the stress, excepting cover plates, where the unsupported width shall be not more than forty times its thickness.

Stone bolts for main trusses shall be not less than one and three-eighths (1⅜) inch diameter and for short girders not less than one (1) inch in diameter.

Pins shall not be of a smaller diameter than three-quarters of the width of the widest bar attached. The several members attached to the pins shall be packed as closely as possible and all vacant spaces filled with wrought iron filling rings.

Rollers in roller nests shall not be less than two and seven-eighths (2⅞) inches in diameter.

Proportioning the Material:

In compression chord sections the material shall be concentrated most at the sides in rolled or built channels. Cover plates must be avoided and only used when necessary to resist exceptional bending stresses.

Web members must have symmetrical cross sections and must be connected symmetrically to the webs of the chords.

When any member is subject to the action of both axial and bending stresses, resulting from its own weight, from other loads or from eccentricity, it shall be proportioned so that the greatest fibre stress will not exceed the specified limits for tension or compression on that member. If, however, the stress, resulting from the moment produced by the weight of the member, is less than 10 per cent. of the allowed unit stress on such member, this excess may be neglected.

The effective diameter of a driven rivet will be assumed the same as its diameter before driving. In deducting the rivet holes to obtain net sections in tension members, the diameter of the rivet holes will be assumed at one-eighth (⅛) of an inch larger than the undriven rivet.

Plate girders shall be proportioned in general upon the supposition that the flanges alone resist the bending moment, and that the shearing or web stresses are resisted entirely by the web plates. The distance between centers of gravity of the flange areas shall be considered the effective depth of the girder. The compression flanges shall have in general the same gross section area as the tension flanges and must be properly braced, if necessary to fulfill the requirement of the general compression formula.

Heavy main girders, however, may be figured by using the moment of inertia. In this case, additional splice plates or angles on or near the flanges shall be placed, wherever the web plates are spliced, to make up for the section of the unspliced web plates figured as part of flanges.

5. DETAILS OF CONSTRUCTION.

Riveting:

No rivet shall have a longer grip than five times its diameter.

In calculating the shearing or bearing stresses on rivets in plate girders, the whole shear acting outside of any vertical section is to be considered as being transferred to the flange angles in a distance equal to the effective depth of the girder.

Splices:

Web splices in plate griders shall be made with two plates whose vertical sections shall be at least one and one-half (1½) times the sectional area of the thickest web sheet spliced thereby. The width of the splice plates shall be sufficient to admit two rows of rivets on each side of joint and to receive the stiffeners.

All joints in riveted tension members must be fully and symmetrically spliced.

In compression members, abutting joints with planed or milled faces shall be spliced so as to maintain the parts accurately in contact, precluding all tendencies to displacement.

In compression members, abutting joints, not faced, shall be fully spliced, as no reliance will be placed on such abutting joints.

In members subject to alternate stresses of tension and compression, abutting joints shall be fully and symmetrically spliced to withstand the tension stress and also to satisfy the preceding paragraphs for compression stresses.

Stiffeners:

Whenever the unsupported distance between the flange angles of plate girders exceeds 60 times the thickness of the web plate, vertical angle stiffeners shall be placed on each side of girders at intervals not exceeding one and one-half times the depth of the girder, and reduced to half this distance near supports; the distance between stiffeners shall, however, never exceed eight (8) feet. Stiffeners are to be placed at all web splices and over both ends of bearing plates.

The compression flanges of girders shall be stayed against transverse crippling when their length is more than twenty times their width.

6. GENERAL.

It is to be understood that all strain sheets and plans in reference either to the reinforcement of existing viaducts or to the entire reconstruction of obsolete structures must be made in conformity with the requirements of these specifications and acceptable to the City of Chicago and shall be submitted for examination and approval to the Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 2. That whenever any person or persons, corporation or corporations shall desire to construct, reconstruct, or repair any viaduct or viaducts leading over any railroad track or tracks in the City of Chicago, such person or persons, or corporation or corporations shall first submit to the Commissioner of Public Works the plan or plans in accordance with which it is proposed to so construct, reconstruct or repair such viaduct or viaducts, and if said Commissioner of Public Works finds that such plan or plans comply with the terms of this ordinance he shall grant to the person or persons, corporation or corporations presenting such plan or plans a permit to construct, reconstruct or repair the viaduct in accordance with such plan or plans.

SECTION 3. No person or persons, corporation or corporations shall construct, reconstruct or repair any viaduct in the City of Chicago leading over any railroad track or tracks without first obtaining from the Commissioner of Public Works a permit so to do, in accordance with the foregoing sections of this ordinance.

SECTION 4. Any person or persons, corporation or corporations who shall violate the foregoing provisions of this ordinance, or maintain any viaduct which does not comply with the terms of this ordinance, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, and every such person or persons, corporation or corporations shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each day that such violation, disobedience, neglect or refusal shall continue.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.

The above heights as fixed shall be measured from the plane of low water in Lake Michigan of A. D. 1847, as established by the Trustees of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and adopted by the late Board of Drainage Commissioners and by the late Board of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and now represented by the ordinance of July 11th, A. D. 1898, relating to the corrected elevation of the Old Lind Block bench mark, which determines the base or datum for City levels.

The said roadways of the several streets specified above, between the points hereinbefore described, and also the roadways of all streets and alleys intersecting the several streets specified above and extending from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of each of said above specified streets between the points hereinbefore described, shall be so graded that after being thoroughly puddled, and rolled with a roller of ten (10) tons weight until the roadbeds are thoroughly compacted, and after the pavement hereinafter described shall have been placed thereon, the surface of the pavement at the center of the finished roadway of each of said above specified streets and the center of the finished roadways of all streets intersecting the said above specified streets and extending from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of each of said above specified streets, shall coincide with the established grade of said above specified streets hereinbefore described; and the surface of the said finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catchbasins and adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be four (4) inches below said established grade, and the surface of the finished roadways at the catchbasin inlets in the gutters adjoining the roadway face of the curb shall be nine (9) inches below said established grade.

The slope of the gutters adjoining the roadway face of said curb shall be uniform from the summits to the catchbasins, and a transverse section of said finished roadways and said gutter flags shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of each of said finished roadways at every part of the several roadways of said above specified streets, and at every part of the roadways of all streets intersecting the several streets specified above, between the points hereinbefore described.

The surface of the finished pavement in all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified shall be four (4) inches below the top of the curb on each side of said alley intersections, at the street lines produced of each of said above specified streets, and shall slope thence at a uniform grade to its intersection with the gutters hereinbefore described.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points and between said gutter flags shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry, and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar; each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds, and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface. The surface of said layer of concrete shall be parallel with and three and one-half (3½) inches below the top of the finished pavement.

Upon the concrete foundation as above specified shall be laid a binder course, composed of asphaltic cement and gravel, or clean, broken limestone, crusher run and of varying sizes which will pass through a ring of one (1) inch internal diameter. The gravel or stone shall be heated and thoroughly mixed with the asphaltic cement in the proportions of six (6) parts by weight of asphaltic cement and ninety-four (94) parts by weight of gravel or stone. This binder shall be spread on the base above described and, while in a hot and plastic condition, shall be rolled until it has a uniform thickness of one and one-half (1½) inches. The upper surface shall be exactly parallel with and two (2) inches below the finished surface of the pavement.

Upon this binder course shall be laid a wearing surface or pavement proper, which shall be composed of asphaltic cement seventeen (17) parts, sand seventy-three (73) parts and Portland cement ten (10) parts. The sand and asphaltic cement shall be heated separately to a temperature of three hundred (300) degrees Fahrenheit. The Portland cement shall be mixed with the sand and these ingredients then mixed with the asphaltic cement at the above temperature in an apparatus which shall effect a perfect mixture.

All asphaltum used in the making of the asphaltic cement for both the binder and the wearing surface shall be asphaltum obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad, or asphaltum which shall be equal in quality for paving purposes to that obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad.

The material for pavement, when mixed as above, shall be spread at a temperature of two hundred and fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit. It shall be carefully spread by means of hot iron rakes in such manner as to give uniform and regular grade to such a depth that, after having received its ultimate compression, it will have a thickness of two (2) inches.

The entire surface of the roadways thus improved shall then be compressed by hand rollers, after which natural hydraulic cement in the proportion of one (1) barrel to each one thousand (1000) square yards of surface shall be swept over it, and the whole then thoroughly compressed by rolling with a steam roller of ten (10) tons weight, the rolling being continued for five (5) hours for each one thousand (1000) square yards of surface.

Two (2) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Edgewater place and located in the roadway of said Edgewater place at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said Edgewater place; two (2) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in Thome avenue and located in the roadway of said Thome avenue at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said Thome avenue; four (4) new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in North Paulina street and located in the roadway of said North Paulina street at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines of said North Paulina street.

Each of said catch basins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catch basins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch-basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch-basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch-basin.

Each of said catch-basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch-basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadways of said system of streets as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement, together with the estimate of the cost thereof made by the Engineer of said Board, both hereto attached be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. That said improvement shall be made and the whole cost thereof be paid for by special assessment in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D., 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 4. That the aggregate amount herein ordered to be assessed against the property, and also the assessment on each lot and parcel of land therein assessed shall be divided into five installments in the manner provided by the statute in such cases made and provided, and each of said installments shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum according to law until paid.

SECTION 5. And for the purpose of anticipating the collection of the second and succeeding installments of said assessment for said improvement, bonds shall be issued payable out of said installments bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually and signed by the Mayor and by the President of the Board of Local Improvements, countersigned by the City Comptroller and attested by the City Clerk under the corporate seal of the City of Chicago. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with and shall in all respects conform to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled, "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D., 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 6. That the Attorney of said Board be and he is hereby directed to file a petition in the Circuit, Superior or County Court of Cook County, Illinois, in the name of the City of Chicago, praying that steps may be taken to levy a special assessment for said improvement in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and in the manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 7. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

The following is the said ordinance as passed:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the City Council deem the work, hereinafter specified, necessary.

SECTION 2. That the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, within ten (10) days after the passage and approval of this ordinance, proceed to repair the approach in Fulton street to the subway beneath its tracks, in accordance with the following specifications:

SPECIFICATIONS.

For improving Fulton street, from the foot of the approach of the subway under the Pennsylvania railroad to the top of the east approach with granite blocks No. 2, requiring approximately the following quantities upon which bids must be submitted:

Granite block pavement, complete, 655 square yards, more or less.

Old manholes to be adjusted, 2, more or less.

Unless otherwise specified, the price bid per square yard for pavement must include all costs of cutting, filling and grading that may be necessary to bring the roadway to the proper sub-grade.

Remarks.

Present roadway: Old cedar blocks, 38 feet wide; roadway to be No. 2 granite block, 38 feet wide.

Adjustment of Sewer Manholes and Catch-Basins.

The contractor shall, for the prices bid, lower, raise and adjust to the proper grade and line all covers to the sewer manholes and catch-basins.

Old Manholes.

The covers of the manholes shall be taken off and the upper courses of the brickwork removed if they be defective or if it be necessary to set the covers at a lower grade; if it be necessary to raise the covers more than six inches the upper header courses shall be removed until the internal diameter of the brickwork shall be two feet and six inches and the manholes shall be built up with new brickwork to the proper grade and an iron cover set thereon, using the old cover if it be in a suitable condition.

The price bid per manhole shall include the cost of all the above work and material, including not to exceed two feet of new brickwork, excepting the new cover if furnished.

Covers.

The contractor shall set all covers to the correct grade in a bed of mortar on top of the brickwork above specified.

Masonry.

The bricks must be clean and thoroughly wet before being laid; the most perfectly formed bricks and those with the smoothest surfaces are to be used in the inside courses, the smoothest edge of the brick being laid to the face.

No joint shall exceed one-half of an inch in thickness, and all joints on face shall be trowel-struck.

If it be necessary to build more than two feet of brickwork in adjusting the cover of any manhole or catch-basin such excess shall be paid for at the rate of two dollars per lineal foot.

Mortar.

The mortar shall be made by carefully measuring and thoroughly incorporating one part of natural cement with two parts of clean, sharp sand in dry state, and mixed with clean water to the proper consistency, and shall be used while fresh, and the use of mortar which has been set and then retempered will not be allowed. The mortar used in laying pipe sewers shall be of pure cement, mixed and used as above specified, all to be furnished by the contractor without extra charge.

Bricks.

The bricks shall be of the best quality for the purpose for which they are intended, uniform in quality, sound and hard-burned, free from lime and cracks, and to have a clear, ringing sound when struck, whole and with edges full and square, and of standard dimensions, viz.: 8x4x2¼ inches; they shall be of compact texture, and after being thoroughly dried and immersed in water for twenty-four hours shall not absorb more than fifteen (15) per cent in weight of water.

Back Filling.

The earth must be carefully replaced around all manholes and catch-basins and over all tile pipe laid under this contract in such a manner that no further settlement will take place, and it must be thoroughly rammed with suitable rammers or puddled with water or both.

Preparation of Sub-Grade.

When filling is required it shall be of earth or cinders, free from animal or vegetable matter, and shall be deposited in layers and thoroughly compacted.

In all cases where back-filling of curb is required it shall have a berme of at least four (4) feet at the top thereof, with a slope in one and one-half (1½) horizontal to one (1) vertical.

Where the earth adjacent to the back of the curb is above grade, it shall be removed so as to form a slope of one and one-half (1½) horizontal to one (1) vertical, rising from the back of the curb to the surface of the ground.

Where cutting is required the earth must be excavated to such a depth as may be necessary to bring the roadway to the proper sub-grade after having been thoroughly compacted.

All spongy material or other inferior or vegetable matter that may be in the way of making this improvement shall be removed.

All approaches connecting said street with other streets or alleys intersecting, shall also be cut or filled so that the same shall have a slope of not more than one (1) vertical to ten (10) horizontal and shall be secured from settlement adjoining the pavement.

The roadway shall be brought to the proper sub-grade by cutting or filling and thoroughly compacted and secured from further settlement by flooding, ramming or rolling, or all.

Preparation of Macadam Foundation.

On the sub-grade as above prepared shall be spread a layer of crushed limestone broken to a size which will pass through a ring of two and one-half (2½) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one (1") inch internal diameter and in such quantities that after having the interstices filled with limestone screenings, flooded and thoroughly rolled with a ten ton steam roller, the top of the course shall be seven (7") inches below and parallel with the surface of the granite blocks. This layer shall average approximately eight (8") inches in depth.

All necessary precaution must be used in preparing the sub-grade so as to support the pavement permanently.

Sand Cushion.

Upon the concrete foundation shall be spread a layer of sand in such quantity as to insure, when compacted, a uniform thickness of two (2") inches.

Granite Blocks.

Upon the sand cushion shall be set syenite or granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification, and free from an excess of mica or feldspar.

The blocks shall measure from three (3") to five (5") inches in width, eight (8") to twelve (12") inches in length, and five (5") inches in depth, and be so dressed as to have substantially rectangular, plane surfaces, so that when the blocks are in place the space between the blocks shall in no case be less than one-eighth (⅛") inch nor more than five-eighths (⅝") inch. Soft or weather worn stones obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic, shall not be used.

The blocks shall be laid in contact with each other and in uniform courses across the roadway between the gutters, except at the intersections of the streets, where they shall be laid at an angle of forty-five (45°) degrees with the center line thereof. Each course shall consist of blocks of the same width, and be so laid that all longitudinal joints shall be broken by a lap of at least three (3") inches.

Dry gravel free from loam and dirt shall be swept into the interstices, and the blocks rammed with a seventy-five (75) pound rammer to a true surface and a firm bed. No cracked or chipped blocks shall remain in the pavement.

The space between the granite block pavement and the curb or curb wall shall be filled with a mortar composed of one part of Portland cement and three parts of torpedo sand or limestone screenings.

Pitching and Top Dressing.

After ramming, the spaces between the blocks are to be completely filled with a paving pitch which is the direct result of the distillation of "straight run" coal tar. The pitch must be used at a temperature of not less than 280 degrees Fahrenheit and be spread in sections.

Immediately after the spreading of the paving pitch, and while it is still hot, the blocks shall be covered to a depth of not less than one-half (½") inch with dry roofing gravel. This gravel must be entirely free from sand or loam, and not to exceed one-half (½") inch in size. All gravel must be clean, washed, dried, and heated enough to prevent the chilling of the pitch.

The tarring and top dressing must be completed each day to within five (5′) feet of the face of the blocking.

Headers.

At the end of each intersecting street and alley wing there shall be placed a "header" extending from curb to curb, and so dressed as to conform to the crown of the pavement. The "header" shall be constructed of three by twelve (3"x12") inch oak plank, properly supported by six (6") inch split cedar posts, three (3′) feet in length, firmly set in the ground and spaced not more than five (5′) feet apart. When concrete is used as a foundation the "headers" must be set prior to the laying of the concrete.

Cross-Walks.

There shall be formed in the pavement four (4) crosswalks at each street intersection, three (3) at each half intersection and one (1) across each and every alley wing and one (1) at the middle of each long block. The cross-walks shall consist of three (3) rows of granite flagstones spaced eighteen (18") inches apart. The flagstones shall be of the best quality of granite, free from sand pockets, drill holes, seams or other defects, eighteen (18") inches wide, five (5") inches in thickness, and not less than three (3′) feet in length, except where shorter stones may be necessary to make closures, and shall be "bush-hammered" on top, and the sides and ends pitched and dressed to a line so as to make close joints. They shall be firmly bedded in sand and well rammed to a uniform surface.

SECTION 3. In the event that said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company shall fail to begin the work of making said repairs in the manner provided by Section 2 of this ordinance within ten (10) days after it is notified so to do by the Commissioner of Public Works, said Commissioner of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed to immediately proceed to make the repairs provided by Section 2 of this ordinance and the expense thereof shall be charged to and paid by said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, and the amount so expended, unless paid by said company to the City of Chicago shall be recovered from said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company by the City of Chicago in any proper action instituted therefor.

SECTION 4. In the event that the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company refuse to make said repairs in Section 2 provided for, and in consequence thereof the Commissioner of Public Works shall make said repairs as in Section 3 provided for, then in such event the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company shall pay to the City of Chicago for making said repairs ten per cent. (10%) of the amount so expended, which shall, unless paid by said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company be recovered by said City of Chicago from said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company in the manner and together with the amount so expended for said repairs in any action instituted therefor.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

Rule 1. Inspection and Investigation of Premises.) No application for a license to engage in the business of manufacturing or bottling waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts shall be approved by the Commissioner of Health if the inspection and investigation of the Health Department shows that the manufacturing or bottling plant, or any part of the premises in which the business is to be conducted, is in an insanitary condition. If the applicant is refused a license on account of bad sanitary condition or the bottling of goods in soiled or unclean bottles, or the making of syrups in insanitary cans, pots or tubs, he may make application to the Commissioner of Health for a hearing, and thereafter the Commissioner of Health may recommend the issuance of a license if he is satisfied that the city ordinances will be complied with in the future.

Rule 2. Recommendations for Revoking and Reissuing of Licenses.) If at any time after the granting of such license the licensee fails to comply with the city ordinances imposing sanitary regulations, or sells or offers for sale, or has in his possession for the purpose of selling, any such waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts which have been manufactured or bottled contrary to the general provisions of this ordinance, or of other city ordinances relating to the manufacture or bottling of such goods, the Commissioner of Health may recommend to the Mayor that the license be revoked.

Rule 3. Premises, Location and Description.) No plant for the manufacture or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts shall be established or maintained in any room or rooms where any other business is carried on, or in any room or rooms which directly connects with any living room, kitchen or laundry, or which connects in any manner with any horse or cow stable or any place where animals are kept or slaughtered. No such plant shall be maintained in any building in which horses, mules or cows are kept or stabled. The immediate vicinity of all such plants shall be kept free from the accumulation of rubbish, garbage, manure or any other putrefying, decomposing, infectious or bad smelling substances.

Rule 4. Syrups.) Where syrups are manufactured a separate room shall be maintained so that the proper care and sanitary conditions may be observed. No washing of bottles, utensils, or other appliances shall be done in the syrup room, and no storing of rubbish, dirty utensils, bottles, boxes or any other articles not absolutely necessary in the manufacture or handling of syrup shall be allowed in said room. Syrup when manufactured shall be stored or kept in clean bottles or other receptacles and shall be securely covered and sealed, or otherwise kept from contact with the air until used. Syrups shall be carried or conveyed in clean sanitary pipes or in closely covered vessels.

Rule 5. Construction and Equipment.) The floor of all rooms used in manufacturing or bottling of waters, carbonated waters, syrups, or flavoring extracts shall be smooth, free from crevices and defects and water tight. When below the street level the floor must be constructed of impervious material, such as cement, asphalt or tiles laid in cement, and shall be well drained with ventilated and trapped drains. All cans, bottles, measures, strainers, stirrers and other utensils must be so constructed as to be thoroughly and easily cleansed by simple washing. All such utensils shall be kept clean, in good repair and free from rust and crust. Before filling with waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts, all bottles shall be thoroughly cleaned both inside and outside. All such bottles shall be thoroughly brushed inside and rinsed with clean, fresh, unused water as a final cleansing before such filling for distribution. When typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria, smallpox, measles or chicken pox occur in the residence or living place of any one engaged or employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of waters, carbonated waters, syrups or flavoring extracts, it shall be the duty of the owner or manager of such business to notify the Division of Food Inspection at once of this fact, so that the necessary regulations can be enforced in co-operation with the Bureau of Contagious Diseases to prevent the spread of the disease. No one suffering with or convalescent from any such disease, or any other communicable disease shall engage or be employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of such waters, syrups or flavoring extracts. When typhoid, scarlet fever, diphtheria or smallpox occurs in the house or living place of any person engaged or employed in such manufacturing, bottling or distribution, such person shall at once discontinue his work. If any person infected with or convalescent from any of such last mentioned diseases or residing in a house or apartment where any such disease exists has worked in the manufacture or distribution of any such goods, the plant, wagons and bottled goods may be declared infected and the same shall not be reopened, used or sold until a thorough disinfecting has been made of such plant, wagons and goods by the Department of Health. No person convalescent from a contagious disease or living in a house or apartment in which there is a contagious disease shall re-engage or be re-employed in the manufacture, bottling or distribution of such goods until the Bureau of Contagious Diseases has enforced quarantine regulations and the necessary disinfection has been done by the officers of the Health Department.

Ald. Snow moved that the communication transmitted by His Honor, the Mayor, be printed in the Journal and referred to the Committee on Harbors, Wharves and Bridges.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the said communication:

CHICAGO, August 10, 1909.

Hon. Fred A. Busse, Mayor of the City of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR—In 1885 I was the special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department, to bring under notice of President Grover Cleveland and Secretary Daniel Manning, the encroachment of the Illinois Central Railroad Company on the Chicago Lake Front; the work of building piers, filling in and making land out into the Lake, at the foot of Lake Street and Twelfth Street.

This company has robbed the State of Illinois and the City of Chicago out of $73,000,000.00 worth of made land, as was shown to the Supreme Court, at the hearing in Washington, D. C., in 1892. I sent my report to Secretary Manning. He ordered me to report to him at Washington, which I did. He told me he had taken the lake front matter up with President Cleveland, and that the President was very much interested in the matter and asked me to go with him and explain the case to the President. I did so, and laid before him a map of the Lake Front Harbor. After I had shown what the railroad company was doing, he turned to the Secretary and said: "Manning, they may as well go to New York City and build and fill in out into any public waters and make land." He also said: "Manning, stop this at once."

The case was sent to the Attorney General and the late General Logan, who was very much interested in the matter, went with me to see the Attorney General, and asked him to take the lake front matter up at once, which he did. The case was sent to the United States District Attorney, R. S. Tuthill, at Chicago, to be placed before the United States Court. It was pushed by Judge Tuthill and the Supreme Court decided in 1892 that no company or corporation had any right to build or make land into any public water, and was not vested with riparian rights in any way as it would be obstructing navigation.

I wanted Secretary Manning to let me make seizure of the made land from the railroad company, as that would compel them to show title to the land. He said he would take the matter up with the Solicitor of the Treasury, and get his opinion. He did so, and the Solicitor told him that the Government could do this, but really the made land belonged to the City of Chicago, and the city could get it back or compel the railroad company to pay for it or get rent for the same.

I see from the Chicago papers that the State of Illinois has appointed a commission to investigate made lands into Lake Michigan, and the state claims that the made lands belong to the State of Illinois.

I claim the made lands, fronting Chicago Harbor, belong to the City of Chicago, as I know most of all the made lands were made and filled in by the public at large and the City of Chicago for dumping grounds. As we have thirty miles of harbor frontage, I would respectfully suggest that your Honor appoint one of your city attorneys to be present at the state investigation and make reports to your Honor of the proofs and evidence given to the Commission.

As I have always lived in Chicago, I would be pleased to assist him if your Honor wishes me to.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) THOMAS H. KEEFE.

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICITY,
BUREAU OF GAS INSPECTION,
CHICAGO, August 3, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—Following is a summary of the gas pressures recorded by Bristo recording gauges in the Gas Inspector's Office, 76 Fifth avenue, fourth floor, fo the month of July, 1909, beginning July 9th:

AS RECORDED ON CHART, AT ELEVATION OF 60 FEET ABOVE STREET.

Maximum for month, 6.0 inches a 10:25 P. M., July 19.

Minimum for month, 2.85 inches a 2:55 P. M., July 13.

Maximum variation for month, 3.1 inches.

Maximum per cent variation fo month, 110.5 of above minimum.

Maximum variation for one day, 2. inches on July 19th.

Maximum per cent variation for one day, 81.8 of minimum.

Since these pressures were obtained at a considerable elevation, for purpose of comparison some level must be taken as a standard to which all observations may be corrected. The ordinance reads "at consumer's meter." This is indefinite as regards elevation, but custom assumes street level. Reducing above figures to values, which would have been obtained at street level, and which are in my opinion the correct figures, the following values are obtained:

PRESSURES AT STREET LEVEL (76 FIFTH AVENUE) FOR JULY, 1909.

Maximum for month, 5.2 inches at 10:25 P. M., July 19.

Minimum for month, 2.05 inches at 2:55 P. M., July 13.

Maximum variation for month, 3.15 inches.

Maximum variation for month, 153.6 per cent of above minimum.

Maximum variation for one day, 2.7 inches on July 19.

Maximum per cent variation for one day, 108.0 on July 19.

Maximum pressure generally occurs between 9 and 12 P. M.

Minimum pressure generally occurs between 9 and 11 A. M. and again between 3 and 4 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,

* Accident in laboratory. No test.

REMARKS—No calorific tests were taken from August 1st to August 18th, inclusive, on account of deficiency of water supply, which caused breaking of thermometers. Although new ones were ordered at once they were not delivered until August 18th. On August 23d no test could be taken because of the fact that the plumbers were changing the water supply.

PRESSURE.

Maximum for month, 5.10 inches on August 4, at 2:30 A. M.

Minimum for month, 1.85 inches on August 8th, at 2:05 P. M.

Maximum variation for month, 3.25 inches.

Maximum per cent variation for month, 175.7 of above minimum.

Maximum variation for one day, 2.95 inches on August 3d.

Maximum per cent variation for one day, 137.2 of minimum of 2.15 inches.

Minimum variation for one day, 1.75 inches, on August 2nd and 6th.

Minimum per cent variation for one day, 71.4 of minimum of 2.45 inches.

Special attention is called to the fact that these figures are not the figures observed at the gauge but are the observed figures corrected to street level.

Special notice to sudden marked fluctuations was taken. The maximum change in pressure in thirty minutes or less, occurred on August 8th at 2 P. M., amounting to 1.9 inches in 10 minutes. Changes of one inch to one and one-half inches in five minutes have been noticed several times during the month. These sudden changes usually take place during the late evening or early morning hours, although some have been recorded during the daylight hours.

We have been unable to detect the presence of any hydrogen sulphide in the gas received here by means of lead acetate stain papers.

The data given above is subject to possible corrections when suitable apparatus can be obtained with which to accurately calibrate the various instruments used. The figures given are comparative but cannot be considered as absolutely correct for the above reason.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Wm. B. Burke,

Gas Inspector.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the said communication:

DEPARTMENT OF POLICE,
CHICAGO, September 23, 1909.

Hon. Fred A. Busse, Mayor:

SIR—There exists a serious embarrassment by reason of the fact that it appears to have been necessary to detail to duties other than those designated by their civil service title a considerable number of sergeants. There are approximately eighteen patrol sergeants and nine desk sergeants at present performing duty in the Detective Bureau and twenty detective sergeants assigned to duty as patrol or desk sergeants.

I have been informed that this has been brought about by the exigency of the service and the necessity of assigning men with some regard of their personal aptitudes. The result of this is demoralizing in effect. For instance, detailing detective sergeants to the position of acting patrol sergeants means the assigning of men to those positions who are not uniformed and, regarding their positions as more or less temporary, they do not procure uniforms. This results in a number of the patrol sergeants being uniformed and a number not. Men assigned to this duty temporarily are reluctant naturally to take action in many instances where they would not hesitate if their assignment was understood to be permanent. This neutralizes their effectiveness.

The line of promotion is from patrolman to sergeant. At the present time this divides into desk, patrol and detective. It does not follow that because an eligible stands higher on the detective list than upon that of desk or patrol sergeant that he is better fitted for this assignment, and as the names of many appear on all three eligible lists simultaneously, they are naturally selected from the particular list upon which their names stand highest, and, in any individual case, this may be the particular assignment that least comports with the training and personal qualifications of the men promoted.

The lieutenants are appointed from men who took the examinations from the several grades of sergeants, thus merging into one grade again what has been differentiated into three. The result of this is again embarrassment for the obvious reason that men who have served for a number of years in any one capacity are limited in their experience by that service and more or less unfamiliar with the service in its entirety in direct proportion to the degree that they have specialized in any one of the three subdivisions named.

I am of the opinion, after consultation with the experienced officials of the department, that an anomaly exists in this regard which steps should be taken at once to remedy. As there is a grade of lieutenant, captain and inspector, so there should be one grade of sergeant and the various duties which naturally would be performed by a sergeant can be assigned to such sergeants as by temperament and experience would promise best results.

I have an opinion from the Corporation Counsel's office which suggests as a remedy the following:

"Amend Section 1731 of the Revised Municipal Code of 1905 by striking out the words 'detective sergeants', 'patrol sergeants', 'desk sergeants' appearing in the last three lines thereof and there insert the word 'sergeants'. Add to said section the following: 'All distinction heretofore existing between the positions of detective sergeants, patrol sergeants and desk sergeants is hereby abolished, and all such positions shall hereafter be known as sergeants.'"

I shall be pleased to have you direct the proper official to prepare an ordinance providing a remedy for this existing evil which in my opinion will go a long way to bettering present conditions.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) L. T. STEWARD,
General Superintendent of Police.

ALSO,

The following communication, which was ordered published and placed on file:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, September 21, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—In the Appropriation Bill of this year, the City Council, under the captain "Law Department," included an item for cost and expense of revising and publishing in book form the Municipal Code since 1905.

That this undertaking was advisable and almost indispensable may be readily seen by an examination of the City Council records, which disclose that since the adoption of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 nearly 350 amendments thereof have been passed, 110 general and 30 prohibition and local option ordinances have been enacted.

Thus, in order to determine the existence, non-existence or condition of an ordinance, it has become necessary to search through the pages of the Code of 1905, the published supplement thereto, as well as through the printed proceedings of all of the meetings of the Council held subsequent to January 1, 1909.

During the past four years many ordinances of the city have been superseded by statutes, some have been judicially declared void and others are recognized by lawyers to be ultra vires the city. For the foregoing reasons, I approve of the revising and compiling of the municipal by-laws.

In order that the work may be completed by January 1, 1910, I respectfully urge the various committees which are considering prospective legislation to use all possible diligence in their consideration thereof, as well as in the consideration of measures which may be introduced in the Council during the next two months.

As it is imperative that the copy of the new Code be transmitted to the printer by December 1, 1909, the committees will greatly assist the Corporation Counsel by disposing of all general ordinances prior to that date.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

ALSO,

A communication as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, September 27, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith transmit to your Honorable Body a communication from Hon. Theodore K. Long, which concerns submerged and "made" lands along the lake shore between the mouth of the Chicago river and 79th street, together with an opinion of the Corporation Counsel addressed to the Committee on Bathing Beaches and Recreation Piers, which bears on the aforesaid subject, also a letter of Alderman Long addressed to the Corporation Counsel, requesting the submission of the opinion.

Inasmuch as it appears, both from the opinion of the Corporation Counsel as well as from the communication of Alderman Long, that there are many unlawful encroachments along the shores of Lake Michigan south of 12th street, one conclusion necessarily follows: Someone should proceed with all possible diligence to obtain for the people both title and undisputed possession to the land which belongs to them.

Diversity of jurisdiction should not stand in the way of speedy action. The State of Illinois, the South Park Commissioners and the City of Chicago should unite in preserving for the people their common interest.

Since I do not believe that formalities should retard any movement which inures to the public benefit, I respectfully request that you authorize the Mayor to invite a conference consisting of representatives of the State of Illinois, of the South Park Board, the Lincoln Park Board, the Sanitary District and of the City of Chicago who shall assemble for the purpose of considering the best method of procedure for the reclamation of the lands in which each representative is, in a measure interested, and which have been appropriated by others. Such a conference should be authorized to consider the advisability of a settlement and adjustment of the claims made by riparian owners along the lake shore between the points aforesaid.

That a conference of this character can materially assist the City of Chicago in its plan for the establishment of bathing beaches and recreation piers, cannot be denied, and it is with the hope that the sympathy of the aforesaid authorities is with Chicago in this movement that I submit the foregoing proposition to your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Long moved that the said communication be approved and published, and that the Mayor be authorized to invite representatives to the conference suggested in his communication.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the communication transmitted by His Honor, the Mayor, together with an opinion from the Corporation Counsel, attached thereto:

COMMUNICATION FROM ALD. LONG.

CHICAGO, September 25, 1909.

Hon. Fred A. Busse, Mayor of Chicago:

DEAR SIR—Referring to a recent conversation had with you concerning certain conditions which pertain relative to sundry submerged lands and made lands along the lake shore between the mouth of the Chicago River and 79th street, the writer begs to invite your attention to the following:

You, of course, are advised of the somewhat unsettled condition of the ownership of the lake frontage caused by extensive filling in from time to time of the submerged lands. Large areas of these submerged lands have been filled in and are now in process of being filled in and are taken possession of by private parties without authority of law as the writer believes, and day by day, week by week and month by month these aggressive private interests advance further and further into and over the waters of the lake, appropriating to their own uses the heritage of the people, the most valuable, attractive and artistic lake water frontage ever possessed by a free city.

Between Grant Park and Twenty-second street, between Forty-seventh street and Fifty-first street and between Fifty-third street and Jackson Park this process of the extension of private dominion over the natural recreation beaches and play-grounds of the city goes steadily, rapidly and persistently forward. These aggressive private interests never slumber; their paid agents and attorneys are ever on the alert to extend their jurisdiction lakeward, while in the meantime the public, inactive and slothful, its representatives ever changing by the change in political administrations, sleeps on its rights and the people's heritage pays the penalty.

In connection with the work of the Special Committee on Bathing Beaches and Amusement Piers, the writer's attention was first directed to this subject and as a member of such committee and with the consent and approval of the chairman thereof, the writer with a view of bringing some order, if possible, out of the general chaos that seemed to pertain relative to the lake front addressed a letter of inquiry to the Corporation Counsel, a copy of which letter together with the reply thereto are hereto appended.

While from the aforesaid opinion of the Corporation Counsel it would seem that title to the submerged lands is clearly vested in the State or in the State's grantee, yet by reason of the existing riparian rights in the adjacent owners and sundry claims asserted over lands formed by accretion or otherwise, the exact legal dividing line between the private owner, the State, the City of Chicago and the South Park Board is, to say the least, sufficiently obscure to warrant an effort on the part of the City and the various parties in interest to get together and to make a proper, final and definite adjustment of the matter.

As a question of practical utility it is probably not material to the people as a whole whether the legal title vests in the State, the Park Board or the City of Chicago, so long as the title so vested is held in trust for all the people and so long as the party so holding title will see to it that the lake front is not encroached upon or alienated for private uses.

The lake front submerged lands should not be sold, bartered or given away at any price. No sum imaginable can compensate the people for the loss of these lands as their natural play-grounds and bathing beaches, and the aggressive private interests which have from time to time asserted dominion over them must be removed therefrom.

While it would seem from the aforesaid opinion of the Corporation Counsel that the South Park Board has the right under the Acts of 1903 and 1907 to acquire title to and possession of the submerged lands between Grant Park and Jackson Park, nothing has as yet been done by said Park Board toward acquiring such title; so that it is entirely proper for the City, as representing the whole people, to take the initiative and either acquire title by condemnation proceedings or otherwise, or inspire the South Park Board to a keener conception of its opportunities in this behalf.

With a view of inspiring some action toward the adjustment of these matters, the writer on July 30th last suggested to the chairman of the South Park Board the appointment of a joint high commission composed of representatives from the South Park Board, the Board of County Commissioners and the City Council, to confer with commissioners to be appointed by the Illinois Central Railway Company and others making claim to the lake frontage, in the hope that such commissioners might find a way to compel the early settlement of the disputed interest involved. Nothing however practicable resulted from the foregoing suggestion. It is extremely important that this whole matter of lake frontage be settled at the earliest date practicable for the reason that it appears from authentic sources that the natural filling in of the lake frontage resulting from the dumping of garbage and excavation material amounts approximately to twenty acres per annum. It is apparent that this very valuable acquisition of made land should not inure to the benefit of private parties, but should be converted into park areas, bathing beaches and pleasure grounds for the people of Chicago and the State of Illinois. This can only be done by working in conformity with an intelligent and orderly plan based upon a fixed ownership of the lake shore frontage; and the first special requisite therefore, as preliminary to any plan, is the settlement and adjustment of the ownership of the Lake Shore.

In pursuance, therefore, of the cordial interest expressed by your Honor to the writer on this subject and your hearty willingness to urge a final adjustment thereof, I beg to lay the whole matter before you for such action or recommendation as to you may seem expedient and wise in the premises.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) THEODORE K. LONG.

OPINION OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL.

CHICAGO, September 23, 1909.

To the Honorable, the Committee on Bathing Beaches and Recreation Piers of the City Council:

GENTLEMEN:—Under date of August 17, 1909, Hon. Theodore K. Long, requested the Corporation Counsel to furnish a legal opinion covering several matters then pending before your committee, which request was subsequently assigned to me for consideration, and after some weeks of investigation and study of the various questions presented by your committee, I have the honor to advise you in the premises as follows:

1. As to jurisdiction over submerged lands.

By virtue of Section 71, Par. 10 of the Cities and Villages Act, the City of Chicago has jurisdiction upon all waters within or bordering upon the city to the extent of three miles beyond the city limits; that this Act did not grant to the city ownership of the submerged lands, is clearly shown by the case of Bliss vs. Ward, 198 Ill. 104, in which the court said:

"The Act of 1863, reducing the charter of the City of Chicago to one Act and extending the corporate limits of the city so as to include the waters and body of Lake Michigan for a distance of one mile east of the shore, did not transfer title to the submerged lands within such extended limits to the City of Chicago."

Of course, the court would doubtless, if the question were presented, reach the same conclusion in considering the Cities, Towns and Villages Act (the Act of 1872), which superseded the City Charter of 1863, wherever the same was repugnant thereto or inconsistent therewith.

In many of the Illinois decisions, the title of the State in all of the submerged lands under Lake Michigan lying within the boundary limitations of Illinois, has been announced and affirmed.

"The law seems to be well settled in the different States that the title to and dominion over lands covered by tide-waters within the boundaries of the several States belong to each State wherein they are located. The State holds the fee in trust for the public. The doctrine established in regard to lands covered by tide-waters has also been held applicable to lands bounded by fresh water on our large lakes. As early as 1860 the question arose in this State in regard to the proper construction to be placed upon a deed conveying land with Lake Michigan as a boundary line, and in disposing of this question, this court in Seaman vs. Smith, 24 Ill. 521, held that a grant giving the ocean or a bay as the boundary line by the common law carries it down to the ordinary high-water mark; that the point at which the tide usually ebbs and flows is the boundary of a grant to the shore, and that the rule which governed in regard to lands on tide-water applied to lands on our great lakes.  The State holds the title in trust in its sovereign capacity for the entire people.  The governmental power of the State over these lands cannot be relinquished or given away. The trust imposed upon the State must be kept and faithfully observed."

People vs. Kirk, 162 Ill. 138.

2: As to the right of the State to transfer title in submerged lands.

Only in the subservience of public interests, as distinguished from private interests, can the alienation of submerged land in Lake Michigan be justified.

During the past twenty years numerous instances have arisen in which the State of Illinois, by its Legislature, has vested portions of the submerged land in various municipalities, and since a consideration of these transfers is necessary to a proper understanding of the questions presented, it is pertinent to briefly mention some of the most important legislative enactments on this subject.

A: In 1889 the General Assembly authorized the Lincoln Park Board to extend a driveway over and upon the waters of Lake Michigan so long as the same did not interfere with navigation, commerce or the right of fishery.

This Act also permitted the Board to sell and convey the submerged land lying between the shore and the westerly boundary of the proposed driveway.

Our Supreme Court, in the case of People vs. Kirk, (supra), sustained the validity of the Act, and asserted that in transferring the submerged land within the limitations named in the Act, the Legislature had not transcended the trust imposed upon it by law.

B: Under the provisions of an Act passed by the Legislature, in force July 1, 1895, the Lincoln Park Commissioners, were granted title to the submerged land from the Chicago River to the northern boundary of the Town of Lake View, upon the adoption of a plan for the enlargement of Lincoln Park and the location of a driveway over and upon the body of Lake Michigan. The Act also provided for a method of acquiring the riparian rights of the various shore owners. Subsequent, to the passage of this Act, the Lincoln Park Commissioners have, from time to time, adopted plans for the construction of the boulevard or driveway from point to point along the north shore and have had the boundary line fixed by them, affirmed by a decree of the Circuit Court in conformity with the requirements of the Act.

Attached hereto and marked "Exhibit A" is a letter from Mr. Charles A. Churan, attorney for the Lincoln Park Commissioners, setting out in detail the progress of the Lincoln Park Commissioners in this matter to date; also a plat (marked "Exhibit B") which shows the proposed extension and work under construction in the Lincoln Park district.

Regardless of the fact that the Lincoln Park Commissioners had proceeded under the authority of the last mentioned Act, and had adopted a plan for the occupation and improvement of the submerged lands lying between the north line of Grace street extended to the northern limits of the Town of Lake View, Charles U. Gordon attempted to construct a pier upon the submerged lands along the shore of Lake Michigan adjacent to Lot 13 of Simmons & Gordon's Addition to Chicago. The Supreme Court, in the case of Gordon vs. Winston, 181 Ill. 338, in affirming the judgment of the Circuit Court enjoining the construction of the pier, held that the Park Board had a right to appropriate the submerged lands extending out to the line of navigation and had the right to enjoin any acts on the part of Gordon which tended to encroach upon the public domain and gradually appropriate such property for his own use.

C: In the year 1899, the State granted to the City of Chicago the land under the waters of the Lake opposite 39th street for the purpose of building and forever maintaining thereon a pumping station together with the necessary intakes for water with protecting piers therefor. (See Hurd's Revised Statutes, 1908, page 457).

D: By virtue of an Act in force July 1, 1903, the South Park Commissioners were authorized to extend parks, boulevards or driveways bordering upon any public waters in this State, over and upon the bed of such public waters, provided that such extension should not interfere with the practical navigation of such public waters for the purpose of commerce without due authority from the proper official of the United States government having control thereof. The South Park Commissioners were also given the right to connect parks within their jurisdiction by constructing a boulevard, driveway or parkway over and upon the bed of such public waters and over and upon any lands penetrating such waters.

Provision was made in this Act for the acquisition of riparian rights, compensation to be made out of the general revenue.

E: Subsequent to the passage of the last mentioned Act, the Commissioners discovered that its provisions were incomplete, and that a different method of payment for the riparian rights should be made; whereupon, during the Summer of 1907, a new bill was presented to the Legislature which became a law on July 1, 1907.

As in the Act of 1903, the statute of 1907 transfers title to the submerged land from 12th street to the north line of Jackson Park when the Park Commissioners shall have acquired the riparian rights of the owners of any lands along the shore adjoining such submerged lands and shall have agreed upon a dividing line, which dividing line is established or affirmed by the decree of the Circuit Court.

It is to be noted that the acts granting the submerged lands along the north shore and the acts granting the submerged lands along the south shore to the various park commissioners differ materially in one respect, viz: the Lincoln Park Commissioners acquire title upon the adoption of a plan for the extension; whereas, the South Park Commissioners acquire no title until the riparian rights have been secured.

My conclusion on this subject is concurred in by Mr. R. P. Hollett, who was attorney for the South Park Commissioners at the time the Act of 1907 was introduced in the Legislature, as well as by Mr. John G. Drennan, who assisted in the drafting of the bill.

In passing, it might be mentioned that during the last session of the General Assembly a bill was introduced and passed the Senate which granted to the Chicago Exposition and Recreation Pier Company the right, power and authority to construct, maintain and operate a recreation pier upon the submerged lands in the waters of Lake Michigan extending easterly perpendicularly to the general trend of the shore of the lake to 31st street with proper and necessary approaches. The persons interested in this bill, evidently also assumed that the South Park Commissioners had at the time of the introduction of the bill acquired no interest in the submerged land at this point.

My information is that the South Park Commissioners dropped the matter of extending a boulevard over the bed of the lake connecting Grant and Jackson Parks at the time when His Honor Mayor Busse appointed the Special Harbor Commission, since the park authorities had no desire to proceed with any scheme which would conflict with the plans of the city in the matter of the improvement of the lake front.

F: In 1903, the Legislature also granted and conveyed to the South Park Commissioners the submerged and artificially made land lying within the "south boundary line of Jackson Park and the south line of 79th street, as extended one thousand feet into Lake Michigan, and the line easterly of and parallel with the shore line of said lake" (and the shore line of said lake) and also within the "north line of 95th street extended to its intersection with the boundary line of Indiana and Illinois, as exended, and the shore line of Lake Michigan."

3: Rights of Riparian Owners.

The Illinois Courts have taken a severe stand in protecting the position of the State in the submerged land under the waters of Lake Michigan. The decisions bearing upon the rights of the shore owners are so clear and unequivocal that there can be no dispute as to the following propositions:

(a) The riparian owner has the right only to natural accretions and to access to the water in front of his property.

(b) The riparian owner may erect structures on his own land to protect it from erosion if they do not interfere with navigation, but he has no right to build piers or other structures upon the submerged land to accomplish that purpose unless authorized by the State. (Revell vs. People of the State of Illinois, 177 Ill. 468).

Revell, in this case, attempted to build a pier parallel with the shore line, but beyond the water's edge. This the court held was an unlawful and unwarranted act.

(c) The riparian owner has no right to construct a pier out into the lake unless he owns the submerged land, or has permission from one having title thereto. (Cobb vs. Commrs. Lincoln Park, 202 Ill. 427).

(d) Neither a riparian owner nor any other person can by filling in without permission obtain title to made land where the title to soil upon which the filling was done was in the State.

Farnham on Water Rights, Vol. 1. p. 339.

Diedrich vs. Northwestern Union R. Co., 42 Wis. 248.

3: As to proposed Montrose Avenue Bathing Beach.

On the 13th day of February, 1906, the Commissioners of Lincoln Park, by resolution, adopted a plan showing lines running along the shore of Lake Michigan from the north line of Sheridan Road (Byron street) extended, to the north line of Montrose avenue, extended, said line having been agreed upon as the dividing or boundary line between the streets named above and the land acquired by the Commissioners of Lincoln Park under the aforesaid Act of 1895.

The Commissioners of Lincoln Park, by resolution, passed on the 13th day of January, 1909, duly resolved that it was the intention of the Commissioners of Lincoln Park in establishing said line to dedicate to the public as public streets Montrose avenue, Marquette Terrace, Kenesaw Terrace, Buena avenue, Gordon Terrace, Bittersweet Place and Irving Park avenue, as extended eastward to said permanent boundary line.

The City of Chicago by ordinance duly passed on March 8, 1909, Council Proceedings, page 3172, accepted the aforesaid dedication.

Thus, there can be no controversy between the city and the Lincoln Park Commissioners as to the eastern boundary line of Montrose avenue. The city also owns the lot lying north of Montrose avenue (including the shore front and riparian rights) upon which is located the Lake View Pumping Station. This lot is 230 feet in width along the shore and the street is sixty-six feet in width.

The method of procedure which should be adopted prior to extending the pier into the lake at this point, will be considered below.

5: As to the 22nd street Beach and Piers.

I am creditably informed that the Illinois Central Railroad Company has acquired all the riparian rights north of 50th street and south of 12th street, excepting that portion of the lake shore which lies between the center line of 22nd street and a line produced into the lake from a point 160 feet south of 25th street, which last mentioned piece of land is part of the subject-matter of the Committee's inquiry.

On July 27, 1852, the Illinois Central Railroad Company acquired from Stephen A. Douglas the property upon which is now located its right of way along the lake shore between the last mentioned points, the deed expressly reserving in Douglas all title, right and ownership to land and water between the eastern line of said railroad and the center of Lake Michigan and bounded by due east lines drawn from the north and south ends of said tracts of land. A copy of this deed is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit C."

Mary Morris Walker succeeded to all the interests of the late Stephen A. Douglas, and her heirs now claim to be the owners of this tract of land, a plat of which is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit D." The plat shows 2240 feet of frontage of this piece of property. Inasmuch as the boundary of 22nd street is the west line of the right of way of the Illinois Central Railroad, the city could not contend it had any riparian rights in the submerged land easterly of the said company's right of way at this point, since contact with the water is necessary to the establishment of riparian rights.

On the question of method of procedure for the construction of a pier and filling in at this location, see below under heading "Procedure."

6: As to the situation at 51st street.

The records of the Old Town of Hyde Park disclose that during the year 1871 a sewer was constructed extending into the lake at 51st street, and a contract was awarded for the erection of a pier for the protection of the sewer.

This pier, I learned from witnesses—old residents of the vicinity—was from time to time extended eastward along the north line of 51st street. The reports as to who extended the pier, running east and west into the lake, do not all agree. It is claimed by some that the Village of Hyde Park extended the pier, others assert that one James Morgan produced the result.

The records of the Map Department, as well as the reports of the old residents of the vicinity, do, however, coincide as to the location of the shore line of Lake Michigan at this point during the last 35 years. The plat hereto attached, marked "Exhibit E" shows the shore line in 1875 to have intersected Hyde Park Boulevard (51st street) at a point about fifteen feet east of the east line of East End avenue.

Old residents remember when the waters at this point washed up on East End avenue and partially covered the northerly 200 feet thereof. The present shore line at 51st street is about 380 feet east of the east line of East End avenue, as shown on the two plats hereto attached and marked "Exhibit F" and "Exhibit G," respectively. Practically all of the land which lies north of 51st street and east of a pier running north and south extending from the east and west pier above referred to has been made within the last 25 years.

In 1882, the aforesaid James Morgan constructed this north and south pier, which, taken in connection with the east and west pier, forms an "L" shape projection into the lake. Upon the construction of the north and south pier, the waves and wind from the north carried in vast quantities of sand which were deposited north of 51st street; that Morgan himself made the greater part of this land cannot be successfully denied. It is said that he would permit no fishermen, excepting those in his employ to fish off the pier, nor would he allow any boat to land or tie up at this pier. Shortly after the construction of the pier, Morgan erected thereon a dredge and scooped the sand from the bottom of the lake outside the pier, and carrying it over the pier deposited it in the inside shallow water until, when his work was completed, the land extended out into the lake north from the east and west pier a distance of about 320 feet, as shown on the plat submitted. The excess sand, he is said to have sold, the revenue therefrom amounting to as much as $100 a day, according to the reports of those familiar with the facts.

Under the law, this land which was made by filling in, as well as the land which was produced by the action of the waves in beating up against the "L" shaped projection, could not become the property of James Morgan. What natural accretions were produced by the natural action of the wind and waves have been so commingled with the artificial accretions and made land as to become a part thereof, and, under the decisions above cited, the State of Illinois, undoubtedly, has become vested with all the land beyond the limitations of the boundaries defining Morgan's possession along 51st street on the north side of 51st street east of the west line of East End avenue extended.

7: As to the reclamation of submerged land known as "Morgan's Reef."

If the city were granted permission to fill in the lake from the shoal waters opposite 51st street, the title to such land would be vested in the city and the shore owner would have no claim or right thereto.

"An island arising in navigable water and afterwards becoming joined to one shore belongs to the State and not to the owner of the shore, and the shore owner will have title only to such portion of the new land as was formed by accretion to his shore."

Farnham, Vol. 1, p. 276.

"If the process is such that an island first arises from the water and afterwards becomes connected to the land by the addition of accretions to it, the title to the island will not vest in the riparian owner."

Farnham, Vol. 1, p. 323.

"Imperceptible accumulation of soil upon the shores of an island in the great lakes whereby it is enlarged, belong to the owner, but if the island first arises from the water and afterwards becomes connected to that of the private proprietor it would not belong to him, but to the State."

People vs. Warner, 116 Mich. 228.

"To entitle the riparian owner to the land, the water must begin to recede from his land. It is not sufficient if the recession begins at some other point and finally reaches his land."

Farnham, Vol. 1, p. 322.

"The title of the shore owner is not established where it appears that as the waters recede they at first left islands separated from the land of the shore owner and from each other by squales or depressions in which the water remained for sometime before the whole tract became dry."

Hammond vs. Shepard, 186 Ill. 235.

The riparian owner acquires only the natural accretions which are adjacent to and in contact with his shore boundary.

8: Power of the City to Establish Bathing Beaches.

Section 6 of the Act of May 18, 1905, relating to the City of Chicago, empowers the city to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, municipal parks, play grounds, public beaches and bathing places and improve, equip, maintain and regulate the same.

Section 7 of said Act authorizes the city to exercise the right of eminent domain by condemnation proceedings in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution and statutes of the State of Illinois for the acquirement of property useful, advantageous or desirable for municipal purposes, and the procedure in such cases, the statutes provide, shall be, as nearly as may be, like that provided for in the Act entitled "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 4, 1897, in force July 1, 1897, as now or hereafter from time to time amended.

It cannot be successfully maintained but that the city if it secures permission from the proper authorities has the power to proceed with the establishment of bathing beaches and recreation piers as necessary adjuncts thereto.

PROCEDURE.

A

Inasmuch as the Lincoln Park Commissioners unquestionably have title to the submerged land along the north shore from Byron street (now Sheridan Road), extended to the north line of Montrose avenue, extended, their consent should be first had and obtained before any improvement is made at this point. In my opinion, legislative enactment in favor of the city would not be necessary for the construction of this pier.

B

No work should be done by the city at 22nd street without permission (1) from the Government; (2) from the heirs of Mary Morris Walker; (3) from the South Park Commissioners; and (4) from the State of Illinois.

Notwithstanding what has been heretofore stated, I believe that the various park authorities should be consulted and their co-operation and permission secured, as a condition precedent to the construction of any pier in or over the submerged land.

C

The City of Chicago should render all possible assistance to the State of Illinois in securing for the State possession of the made land, heretofore mentioned, north of 51st street, and upon the State maintaining its title therein, permission of the Legislature, as well as of the South Park authorities should be obtained before any construction work or filling in is commenced at this point.

D.

Upon an understanding with the South Park Commissioners, a bill should be introduced in the Legislature by force of which the city would be authorized to fill in the shallows opposite 51st street for park and recreation and bathing beach purposes.

This land when filled in as well as the land proposed to be made by dumping at 22nd street, will, in the event permission is secured from the proper authorities for the doing of the contemplated work, unquestionably become the property of the City of Chicago.

But before any improvements in the nature of piers, the making of islands in the lake, or other obstructions are commenced, authority from the Secretary of War should be secured. Permission from the War Department for the construction of piers does not override the rights of the State in the submerged land, but, however, amounts to a declaration by the Government that the proposed structure will not interfere with navigation. (Cobb vs. Commrs. Lincoln Park, supra).

SUGGESTIONS.

I take the liberty of adding to this communication that the Committee might well co-operate with the Small Park Commission in urging the next session of the General Assembly to authorize the City of Chicago to construct a pier at 79th street, and to reclaim the large tract of submerged land, which, when reclaimed, will be an imposing addition in the way of a park, to the present small bathing beach located just south of 79th street.

I note by the daily papers that Alderman Jones proposes that the city should purchase the lake frontage from the south line of the South Shore Country Club property to 79th street and should hold the same for bathing beach purposes.

In this connection, I desire to call the attention of the Committee to the aforementioned Act of 1903, turning over all the submerged land between the aforesaid points to the South Park Commissioners. This Board should be consulted before the city proceeds with this project.

The writer would be glad to attend the meeting of your Committee and explain in detail any portion of this communication which may need elucidation or elaboration.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, September 27, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith without my approval, an ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the Council meeting held on July 6th, 1909, and appearing on pages 992 and 993 of the proceedings of said Council meeting and bearing Document Number 1538, said ordinance requiring the Commissioner of Public Works to serve notice upon aldermen concerning applications for street opening permits in their respective Wards.

I return this ordinance without my approval on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Works. The Commissioner recites that about 35,000 street opening permits are issued annually; that if a street opening permit were withheld until forty-eight hours after written notice was mailed to each of the aldermen in the Ward in which said opening was to be made it would be an additional expense to the Department of at least $10,000 a year; and that it will be a great source of annoyance to applicants for street opening permits if they are compelled to make several trips to the City Hall before said permits are issued. The Commissioner of Public Works suggests that his department could, however, give notice to the aldermen, of permits to be issued for the erection of telephone or electric light poles.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Alderman Egan moved to reconsider the vote by which the said ordinance vetoed by His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

Alderman Egan moved to pass the said ordinance, the veto of His Honor, the Mayor, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The motion was lost.

A veto message as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHICAGO, September 18, 1909.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith without my approval an ordinance passed on August 19, 1909, (C. P. 1139), granting permission to Kurz-Downey Company, et al., to maintain, as now constructed, a single switch track in Cherry avenue.

The purpose of the ordinance was to extend the time within which the grantees might accept the provisions of an ordinance passed on June 14, 1909, but since by the terms of the last mentioned ordinance the grantees were obligated to accept the same within sixty days and had not done so, the ordinance was thereupon rendered void and inoperative and could not be subject to amendment.

Since the proper committees have recommended the ordinance for passage and as I know of no reason why the desired permission should not be granted, I herewith return a substitute ordinance permitting the maintenance of said switch track as authorized by the ordinance of June 14th last, the compensation to commence as of that date; the only change in the ordinance being the elimination of the name of one of the grantees, viz.: The Merchants National Bank, in liquidation, F. W. Crosby, trustee. This change was made on account of the fact that said F. W. Crosby did not desire the privileges extended.

I recommend that the vote by which the ordinance aforesaid was passed be reconsidered and, if it meets the approval of your Honorable Body, that the substitute ordinance herewith submitted be passed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) FRED A. BUSSE,
Mayor.

Ald. Snow moved to reconsider the vote by which the said ordinance vetoed by His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

Ald. Snow moved that the ordinance transmitted by His Honor, the Mayor, be substituted for the ordinance under consideration.

Smith, their successors and assigns, to maintain and operate as now constructed a single railroad switch track connecting with the tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway on the easterly side of Cherry avenue at a point about one hundred and fifty (150) feet north of the north line of Blackhawk street; thence running in a southwesterly direction along and across Cherry avenue for a distance of about two hundred and sixty (260) feet into the block bounded by Cherry avenue, Eastman street, North Branch street and Blackhawk street.

Permission and authority are also given and granted to maintain and operate as now constructed, a single spur track connecting with the above mentioned track in the westerly side of Cherry avenue at a point about forty (40) feet south of the south line of Blackhawk street; thence running in a northerly direction across Blackhawk street and along the westerly side of Cherry avenue for a distance of about three hundred and twenty (320) feet; all of the above as shown in red upon blue print attached to this ordinance, which blue print is for greater certainty hereby made a part of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. The permission and authority herein granted shall cease and determine twenty (20) years from the date of the passage of this ordinance and this ordinance shall at any time before the expiration thereof be subject to modification, amendment or repeal, and in case of repeal all privileges hereby granted shall thereupon cease and determine.

At the termination of the rights and privileges herein granted, by lapse of time or otherwise, the said grantees shall forthwith restore such portions of said streets as are occupied by said switch tracks to a condition safe for public travel, similar to the remaining portions of said streets in the same block, to the satisfaction and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works. If said grantees shall fail to restore said streets at the termination of said privileges, then the work shall be done by the City of Chicago and the cost and expense of doing such work shall be paid by the said grantees.

SECTION 4. The operation and maintenance of the switch tracks herein provided for shall be subject to all existing ordinances of the City of Chicago now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, relating to the use and operation of switch tracks and railway tracks, and the construction and maintenance thereof shall be under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 5. In consideration of the privileges herein granted, the said grantees shall pay to the City of Chicago the sum of Three Hundred and Forty Dollars ($340.00) per annum in advance each and every year during the life of this ordinance, the first payment to be made as of the date of June fourteenth, 1909, and each succeeding payment annually thereafter. It is hereby made an express provision of this ordinance that the privileges herein granted shall terminate and this ordinance become null and void if said grantees, their successors or assigns, shall fail to promptly pay any installment of said compensation.

SECTION 6. Before doing any work under and by virtue of the authority herein granted, said grantees shall execute a bond to the City of Chicago in the penal sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), with sureties to be approved by the Mayor, conditioned upon the faithful observance and performance of all and singular the conditions and provisions of this ordinance, and conditioned further to indemnify, keep and save harmless the City of Chicago against all liabilities, judgments, costs, damages and expenses which may in any wise come against said City in consequence of the granting of this ordinance, or which may accrue against, be charged to or recovered from said City from or by reason or on account of the passage of this ordinance, or from or by reason or on account of any act or thing done by the grantees herein by virtue of the authority herein granted. Said bond and the liability of the sureties thereon shall be kept in force throughout the life of this ordinance, and if at any time during the life of this ordinance such bond shall not be in full force, then the privileges herein granted shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 7. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as granting authority for the maintenance and operation of any track connecting with the above switch track which has been constructed and is now being maintained without authority from the City of Chicago.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval, provided that a written acceptance of same and the bond hereinabove mentioned shall be filed with the City Clerk within sixty (60) days of the passage thereof.

CITY CLERK.

The Clerk submitted a communication from the M. H. McGovern Company, containing a proposal to enter into a contract to build a subway system.

Ald. Snow moved that the said communication be published and referred to the Committee on Local Transportation.

The motion prevailed.

The said communication reads as follows:

CHICAGO, September 27th, 1909.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council, of the City of Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN—We hereby propose to enter into a contract to build a Subway System for the City of Chicago, in accordance with the plans and specifications of the Expert Engineers employed by the City and ourselves, and are prepared to give any necessary assurance of our financial ability to the extent of $100,000,000, or more.

We will accept an ordinance that will give Municipal Ownership as practically as present financial and legal conditions will permit, and without delay.

Respectfully submitted,

Ald. Jones moved to refer the said communication to the Committee on Building Department.

The motion prevailed.

CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Clerk presented the following opinion submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was ordered published and placed on file:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
CHICAGO, September 13, 1909.

In re Duty of Building Bridge Across Drainage Canal.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—In compliance with an order passed by your Honorable Body June 28, 1909, page 874 of the Council Proceedings directing me to prepare and submit to you an opinion on the question: "Upon whom rests the burden of paying for construction of the proposed bridge across the Drainage Canal at California avenue," I beg to inform you that California avenue as a public street is not open between Thirty-first and Thirty-fifth streets, and therefore does not extend to either side of the Drainage Canal. The question of building a bridge cannot arise until the extension of the street to both sides of the canal.

Should the street be extended, and should a public necessity arise for a bridge at this point, then I am of opinion that paragraph 354, chapter 24, 1906 Illinois Revised Statutes, casts the duty of building such bridge upon the Sanitary District by implication, and I am informed that this view of law is also held by counsel for the Sanitary District.

Yours respectfully,
ADOLPH TRAUB,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE.
Corporation Counsel.

DEPARTMENT OF LOCAL TRANSPORTATION.

The Clerk presented the following communication from the City Traction Expert, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Local Transportation:

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Chicago:

DEAR SIRS—On May 10th, 1909, your Honorable Body passed an order directing the City Traction Expert to investigate the question of the noises caused by the operation of trains on the "Union Loop," and to report to the Council what methods or devices exist for abating or diminishing such noises, and the practicability thereof.

The question of deadening or reducing the noise on the elevated structures in Chicago is a serious one. The same question has been carefully considered wherever elevated railroad structures are in use, and public protests have always been and are now made against what is considered a general nuisance.

While a great many experiments have been made along the lines of reducing the noise caused by the operation of trains over metallic elevated railroad structures, yet, up to the present time, there appears to be no satisfactory solution of this problem.

I have not only made an exhaustive study of the elevated system in Chicago, but have secured all the information I can get from engineers connected with elevated railroads outside of the city, and have carefully examined devices that are now used throughout the country, both on elevated and on steam railroads where they used ballasted decked bridges.

I have concluded that the remodeling or changing of the elevated structures already built by the use of any of the various devices that have been tried by other elevated railroads will not accomplish the result desired in your Council order.

This whole matter relative to the Chicago Union Elevated Loop has been gone over thoroughly in an exhaustive report by Bion J. Arnold, Report No. 2, March, 1905. In this report he states that "the present steel structure of the Chicago Union Elevated Railway in Chicago, while well designed from a structural standpoint, shows that little consideration was given to the problem of noise, which makes it very difficult to reconstruct it in such a manner as to apply what is now known regarding "sound deadening" without costing a great deal more than it would have cost had the subject been given careful consideration at the time of construction. While this construction is not difficult from a railroad engineering standpoint, for it is well designed, yet attention is called to it to show some of the difficulties that will be encountered in attempting to modify so as to deaden the sound to such an extent as may be found practicable."

Mr. Arnold is also of the opinion that were the present structure not in place, a concrete structure could be designed and built which would prevent, to a large degree, the noise now emanating fron the present one at a cost which would not be greatly in excess of the cost of the one now in use; but to change the present structure into one resembling such a form is a difficult and expensive task.

When this road was built in 1895, there were no provisions made to avoid unnecessary noise, and there has not been anything done with the deck of this structure since that time. It was laid with an eighty pound steel rail on very light tie plates, and for some few years while those conditions were new, the noise was not excessive; but now, after the rails are practically worn out and the joints hammered out of place, the noise naturally is almost unbearable. The hammering of the wheels over the joints is the principal cause from which noise is imparted into the structure.

Mr. Arnold states that it seems almost impossible to procure any type of joint over which a heavily loaded wheel will pass without imparting to the rail a blow sufficient to produce sound of considerable magnitude, and in time cause a hollow place in the rail upon which the wheel strikes after leaving the joint.

It is plain to be seen that to compel the Chicago Union Elevated Loop and the elevated railroads to comply with the spirit of your council order, one of two things must be considered—to rebuild the entire structure of the Union Loop with a re-enforced concrete structure, to be designed by some high class engineer who is familiar with that kind of construction, and thereby eliminate the greater portion of the noise now made; or rebuild the deck of the present structure along lines which I will suggest hereafter, and eliminate a considerable portion of the noise.

Before deciding which would be the more feasible at the present time, two other important questions in this connection are involved—the establishing of a subway in the downtown district, and after establishing such a subway, removing the Union Loop entirely and operating the elevated railroads from auxiliary terminal stations at or near the entrance of the loop district.

Considerable temporary relief can be given to the people in the loop district by following the suggestions in Mr. Arnold's report, namely, using a steel

"T" rail, weighing not less than 90 pounds to the yard, and not less than 60 feet long, having its end cut at an angle of about 40 degrees and provided with some first-class joint of the bridge type, such as the Continuous, the Weber, the Compromise, or other equally as good joint; also removing all of the old cross ties and replacing them with new ones, which will put the road in better condition than it was the day after its construction. In view of the fact that the present rails are only 30 feet long, the 60-foot rail will eliminate at least half of the joints, where most of the noise is created.

With the above mentioned joints and with new special work throughout, all anchored properly to the structure, is, in my judgment, the proper solution of the question how to eliminate the unbearable noise now produced by the operation of trains on the Chicago Union Elevated Loop and on the elevated roads

The officials of the Union Loop may raise objections to the cutting of the rails according to the plans above suggested, and if this should be found impracticable, then let the rails be cut as they are now, but placed and anchored as above suggested.

It is my deliberate judgment that it would be folly to attempt at this time to rehabilitate the Union Loop with any view to its permanent continuance. The loop must come down if transportation methods are to go up. The steadily increasing congestion in the business district and the multiplicity of traffic problems which are choking downtown operation, make it impossible to consider continuance of the loop in connection with any adequate relief plan. The loop must go, and will go as soon as a downtown subway can be constructed to take its place. If the City cannot deaden the noise on the loop, it can at least bury it in a subway.

The fact that a subway cannot be intelligently planned or constructed under present diversified ownership and operation of surface and elevated roads does not alter the proposition that a subway is indispensable to a correct solution of our traffic problem. Straight-line operation of all cars, elevated, surface and underground, is what the people undoubtedly want and what they eventually will have. First-class operation cannot be attained, however, until the operating company acquires the pecuniary interest which will make it an object to that company to haul its passengers by the most direct route and in the shortest time—until, in fact, it becomes a matter of indifference to the company on what register a cash fare is rung up.

To accomplish this in accordance with approved methods for handling traffic, unified operation is imperative, but the precise kind of subway required cannot be determined until it is ascertained what the demands of the traffic will be following such unified operation. Under no circumstances, however, should elevated trains be permitted in future to enter the present loop district. As I have suggested, let auxiliary elevated railway terminals be established at or near the present loop entrances, say, at South Water, Franklin and Harrison streets.

Of course, the subway project has its financial, engineering and traffic sides, each of which merits serious and expert consideration. As a traffic proposition, however, the situation demands the ultimate removal of the loop from the downtown district, the construction of a subway, and such improvements on the present loop as will afford temporary relief without extending its lease of life or raising any presumption in favor of its continuance.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) MILLARD B. HERELEY,

City Traction Expert.

The above heights as fixed shall be measured from the plane of low water in Lake Michigan of A. D. 1847, as established by the Trustees of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and adopted by the late Board of Drainage Commissioners and by the late Board of Public Works of the City of Chicago, and now represented by the ordinance of July 11th, A. D. 1898, relating to the corrected elevation of the Old Lind Block bench mark which determines the base or datum for city levels.

The said roadway of said West 51st street between said points, and also the roadways of all intersecting streets and alleys extended from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of said West 51st street between said points (except the intersection of South Ashland avenue with West 51st street, and also except street railway rights of way thereon between said points, which rights of way are by the ordinances granting them required to be paved and kept in repair by the companies owning, operating and controlling the same) shall be so graded that after being thoroughly puddled, and rolled with a roller of ten (10) tons weight until the roadbeds are thoroughly compacted, and after the pavement hereinafter described shall have been placed thereon, the surface of the pavement at the center of the finished roadway of said West 51st street, and the center of the finished roadways of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of said West 51st street, except where the roadways are occupied by street railway rights of way, shall coincide with the established grade of said West 51st street, hereinbefore described, and where said roadways are occupied by street railway rights of way, the entire width of all such rights of way shall coincide with the established grade hereinbefore described, and the surface of the finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catch-basins and twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall shall be four (4) inches below said established grade, and the surface of the finished roadways at the catch-basin inlets in the gutters twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall shall be twelve (12) inches below said established grade.

The slope of the gutters along a line parallel with and twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall on each side of said West 51st street, and on each side of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced, on each side of said West 51st street, shall be uniform from the summits to the catch-basins; and the surface of the finished roadways adjoining the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall shall be parallel with and three (3) inches above the grade of the gutters hereinbefore described, and shall slope thence at a uniform rate to said line parallel with and twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall; and a transverse section of said finished roadways between the said lines parallel with and twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall, where the same are not occupied by street railway rights of way, shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the grade of the center of said finished roadways, and a transverse section of said finished roadways where the same are occupied by street railway rights of way shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter grades and the established grade of the street at each side of said street railway rights of way at every part of said West 51st street, and at every part of all intersecting streets, between said points, and between said lines parallel with and twenty (20) inches from the roadway face of said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall.

The surface of the finished pavement in all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified shall be four (4) inches below the top of the curbstones on each side of said alley intersections at the street lines produced of said West 51st street, and shall slope thence at a uniform grade to its intersection with the gutters hereinbefore described.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day, and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which will stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry, and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Six (6) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of two (2) inches internal diameter, and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar; each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds, and thoroughly compacted by ramming, until free mortar appears on the surface. The surface of said layer of concrete shall be parallel with and seven (7) inches below the top of the finished pavement.

On the foundation above specified shall be spread a layer of sand two (2) inches in depth, to serve as a bed for the granite blocks.

The pavement shall consist of Syenite or granite blocks of the best quality, of uniform texture, without lamination or stratification, and free from an excess of mica or feldspar. The dimensions of said blocks shall be four (4) inches in width, five (5) inches in depth and from eight (8) to ten (10) inches in length. The blocks must be laid on edge in uniform courses across the said roadbeds, except the space twenty (20) inches in width adjoining the roadway face of the curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall, where said blocks shall be laid on edge in uniform courses parallel with said curbstones, concrete curb or curb wall, and the spaces between the sides and ends of the blocks shall not be less than one-eighth (⅛) of an inch nor more than three-eighths (⅜) of an inch. On intersections and junctions of lateral streets the blocks shall be laid at an angle of forty-five (45) degrees with the line of the street. The blocks shall be so laid as to break joints in alternate courses, each course, so far as practicable, to be of uniform depth and width.

When thus laid, the pavement shall immediately be covered and swept with screened, dry roofing gravel free from sand or loam, or pebbles smaller than one-sixteenth (1-16) inch, or larger than one-half (½) inch. The amount spread shall be sufficient to fill all the joints in the pavement; the blocks then to be rammed to a firm and unyielding bed and to a uniform surface.

After the gravel having been settled by the ramming of the blocks, the remainder of the joints shall be filled with a paving pitch which is the direct result of the distillation of "straight run" coal tar. Said pitch shall be applied on the work at a temperature of two hundred and eighty (280) degrees Fahrenheit. Immediately after applying the paving pitch, and while it is still hot, the entire surface of the pavement shall be covered with dry roofing gravel as specified above, to a depth of three-fourths (¾) of an inch.

Eighteen new catchbasins shall be constructed and connected and trapped with the sewer in West 51st street and located in the roadway of said West 51st street at necessary points adjacent to the curb lines. Each of said catchbasins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catchbasins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catch-basins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catch-basins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of nine inches internal diameter. The connection with the sewer where said sewer is of brick shall be made in such a manner that the top of the nine-inch pipe shall be at the elevation of the center of said sewer, and the connection with the sewer where said sewer is of tile pipe shall be made by means of a fifteen inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of fifteen inches internal diameter, and by means of a twelve inches by nine inches "Y" branch where said sewer is of twelve inches internal diameter. The said trap of each of said catch-basins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catch-basin.

Each of said catch-basins shall be provided with a cast-iron cover, with a projecting lip to receive the water from the gutters, each of which covers shall weigh four hundred and seventy pounds and shall be of the same size and pattern as those used in similar new work by the City of Chicago during the year 1902. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement hereinbefore described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, and free from lumps and other imperfections, and the standard of thickness shall be as follows: for nine inch pipe seven-eighths of an inch in thickness; for twelve inch pipe one inch in thickness; for fifteen inch pipe one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several manholes and catch-basins located along the line of said improvement shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished roadway of said West 51st street as above specified.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement, together with the estimate of the cost thereof made by the Engineer of said Board, both hereto attached, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. That said improvement shall be made and the cost thereof be paid for by special assessment in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 4. That the aggregate amount herein ordered to be assessed against the property, and also the assessment on each lot and parcel of land therein assessed shall be divided into five installments in the manner provided by the statute in such cases made and provided, and each of said installments shall bear interest at the rate of five percentum per annum according to law until paid.

SECTION 5. And for the purpose of anticipating the collection of the second and succeeding installments of said assessment for said improvement, bonds shall be issued payable out of said installments bearing interest at the rate of five per centum, payable annually, and signed by the Mayor and by the President of the Board of Local Improvements, countersigned by the City Comptroller and attested by the City Clerk under the corporate seal of the City of Chicago. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with and shall in all respects conform to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled, "An Act Concerning Local Improvements," approved June 14th, A. D. 1897, and the amendments thereto.

SECTION 6. That the Attorney of said Board be and he is hereby directed to file a petition in the Circuit, Superior or County Court of Cook County, Illinois, in the name of the City of Chicago, praying that steps may be taken to levy a special assessment for said improvement in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and in the manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 7. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.
